The Fulbright Program, the U.S. Government's flagship international exchange program, is administered by IIE.

Grant Categories

U.S. Student Fulbright Grants fall into three general categories:

Full Grants for Study/Research

Most grants offered in the U.S. Student Program are Full Grants. These include grants in academic fields and in the Creative and Performing Arts and Writing. Grants shall not authorize activity for which a license to practice medicine or nursing is required.

Full Grants for English Teaching Assistantships

ETA Grants are available to over 65 countries. Additional countries may be added.

Travel-Only Grants

Available in Italy, Germany, and Hungary only and are designed to supplement:

- an award from any source that does not provide for international travel
- a student's own funds for study or research.

Boren Awards for International Study

Supports graduate and undergraduate students studying languages, cultures and world areas critical to U.S. interests. Boren Scholarships and Fellowships provide unique funding opportunities for U.S. undergraduate and graduate students to add an important international and language component to their educations. We focus on geographic areas, languages, and fields of study that are critical to U.S. national security, broadly defined, and underrepresented in study abroad.

The 2012 application deadlines are:

Boren Scholarships Deadline: February 9, 2012

Each campus sets an earlier campus deadline.

Boren Fellowships Deadline: January 31, 2012
