Learn practical knowledge in solving today’s critical urban challenges. The curriculum is designed to prepare our students to help shape the future of communities. Graduates enter the urban planning and design fields with the advanced skill sets they need in order to address the debates, issues and the complex needs of modern urban environments.

The Master of Urban Studies and Planning (MUSP) program is designed to prepare professionals to build neighborhoods, cities and large-scale regions and empower people to transform their communities.

LOCATED IN AMERICA’S FIRST PLANNED CITY

Savannah was founded in 1733, making it an ideal institution for urban studies and planning. The beautiful, historic campus is just five minutes from the city’s downtown, designated a National Historic Landmark District.
