

Savannah State University

Position Description – Assistant Football Coach /Assistant Dorm Director

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position Title: Assistant Football Coach/Assistant Dorm Director FLSA Status: Exempt

Reports to: Athletic Director

Department: Athletic Department

Date Prepared: June 2003

BASIC FUNCTION

The main purpose of this job is to coach golf as well as assisting in football, which entails recruiting as well as conducting practices. Also, the position assists the dorm director and the fitness coordinator.

NATURE & SCOPE

Reporting to the Athletic Director, this position is required by the NCAA Division IAA and is a required by University Student Affairs.

This position engages students in the learning process by using sports to teach character and resolve. These ideals are reinforced with hard work and discipline, both on and off the field.

Also, this position helps educate students about how exercise plays a role in a healthy lifestyle.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Uses sports to teach students vital life lessons.
- Ensures good academic standing of players.
- Dispenses discipline to both players and dorm residents.
- Recruits players.
- Travels for competition events.

SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

This position requires a four-year college degree.