Savannah State University
Position Description – Assistant Football Coach

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position Title:	Assistant Football Coach	FLSA Status: Exempt
Reports to:	Athletic Director
Department:	Football
Date Prepared:	June 2003

BASIC FUNCTION

This position requires working as a physical education team member in assigned area of the University to enhance the University and surrounding communities to lead and coach according to NCAA, state, national and institutional guidelines.

NATURE & SCOPE

Reporting to the Head Football Coach, this position serves as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator. As a position coach, the incumbent is charged with the development of assigned athletes. This includes both physical and academic development. As a position coach, the incumbent is accountable for the performance of assigned position athletes on game day. As special team coordinator, the incumbent is accountable for the performance of Savannah State's special teams. This includes strategy, planning and adjustments.

This position helps, advises, and supervises student athletes on matters relating to college life, academics, athletics, and expectations regarding University and athletic policies and procedures.

This position has a significant role in recruiting new student athletes to Savannah State.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTABILITIES

- Assists athletes with academics.
- Recruits potential student athletes for the football team.
- Supervises athletes on the football team.
- Provides leadership to the football program.
- Coordinates a number of activities critical to a successful football program.

SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

This position requires a four-year college degree.