First day of employment.
The following activities will help ensure that the new employee feels welcomed and comfortable the first day on the job.

- Welcome him/her upon arrival to the department.
- Assign a clean desk or office.
- Introduce him/her to co-workers and subordinates.
- Give him/her a tour of the office space.
- Have the department head and other key managers in the office greet the new employee.
- Ensure that he/she has lunch plans.
- Refer him/her to the SSU Web site.
- Discuss his/her job description and job responsibilities.
- Confirm the salary and check distribution procedures (including direct deposit) with the employee.
- Confirm hours of employment, time off and overtime policies (for non-exempt employees), and call-in procedures for unscheduled absences.
- Review holiday schedule and procedures for recording staff attendance.
- Discuss safety policies and procedures.
- Order business cards, if appropriate.

First week of employment.
During the first week of employment, a new employee should gain an understanding of SSU, his or her department, and his or her job responsibilities. The following activities and discussion will help accomplish these goals.

Discuss with the new employee:

- Confirm that s/he has received an ID card and parking permit.
- Ensure that the new hire is provided keys to the office, desk, etc. Describe procedures for entering or locking work area, if appropriate.
- The department’s mission and goals.
- The organizational structure of the department.
- Department standards for confidentiality, teamwork, professional behavior, communication, customer service, etc.