Carlo Valentin Solis
College of Business Administration

Carlo Valentin Solis, a senior accounting major, is originally from Puerto Rico. After interning with Congresswoman Frederica S. Wilson in Washington, D.C., he returned to a homeland devastated by Hurricane Maria. Unable to maintain his studies in the difficult living conditions, he relocated to Savannah and SSU. Solis will graduate in May and already has a job offer from one of the world’s largest accounting firms.

Akia Jones
College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

Akia Jones is a sophomore criminal justice major from Valdosta, Georgia. During high school, she participated in student mentoring and the Beta Club. She is the oldest of seven siblings and enjoys volunteering at the Frank Callen Boys and Girls Club. She has maintained a 4.0 GPA her entire career at SSU. Jones plans to attend law school and become a criminal defense attorney.

Nigel Alexander-Ivery
College of Sciences and Technology

Nigel Alexander-Ivery is a junior computer science technology major from Michigan. He is an honors student and a peer mentor for the STEM education center on campus. In his free time, he programs websites and applications as well as VEX robots for his robotics team. After graduation he intends to earn a master’s degree and work as a software developer.
Aaliyah Buckholts
College of Education

Aaliyah Buckholts, a junior majoring in mathematics with secondary education track, is from Riverdale, Ga. She was dual-enrolled before becoming a full time SSU student. She is a lifetime member of the Girl Scouts, vice president of the SSU chapter of the Georgia Association of Educators, and a tutor for SSU’s Upward Bound program. Buckholts is also SSU’s recipient of the Board of Regents Academic Achievement Award.

Honors Day Convocation

ALMA MATER
Savannah State University Hymn

Let us give thanks and praises to
Our Alma Mater, S.S.U.
Thine honor, pride, and eminence,
We raise in prayerful reverence.

Guide us still from day to day,
Be Thou mindful lest we lose our way;
Help us know that life, short or long,
Means unceasing work for weak and strong.

Refrain:
Where Savannah meets the sea,
Where grassy plains and palms abound,
Where the flow’rs are gems of loveliness,
There S.S.U. is found.

We adore each beauteous scene and hall,
Our all we pledge to Thee!
In our hearts we’ll build a shrine for you
We hail Thee, S.S.U.!

Refrain:
Where Savannah meets the sea,
Where grassy plains and palms abound,
Where the flow’rs are gems of loveliness,
There S.S.U. is found.

We adore each beauteous scene and hall,
Our all we pledge to Thee!
In our hearts we’ll build a shrine for you
We hail Thee, S.S.U.!

Written by J. Randolph Fisher and Hillary Hatchett. Lyrical revision by LaGina Frazier
