 (attendance at both morning and afternoon sessions is expected)

PEDAGOGY TRAININGS
9:00 – 12:00pm  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	General Education Assignment Design Session	Presenter: Dr. Lisa Yount (QEP Director/Associate Professor)
	Audience: General Education Faculty (*Required)	Location: Student Union, Ballroom C
	Faculty teaching in SSU's core curriculum (Areas A-E) need to participate in this mandatory session for creating general education assignments aligned to our six Institutional Student Learning Outcomes (ISLOs) – Written Communication, Critical Thinking, Information Literacy, Quantitative Literacy, Ethical Reasoning, and Integrative Learning. These assignments will become the cornerstone for meeting SACSCOC Comprehensive Standard 3.5.1.
9:00 – 10:00am  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Moving Peer Review to the Center of our Writing Instruction	Presenter: Dr. Jon Elmore (Writing Center Director)
	Audience: Any Faculty	Location: Howard Jordan, Room 122
	This working session will offer a brief presentation on the theory and practice of peer review in writing instruction. The majority of the session will be spent fashioning peer review assignments and instructional materials ready for use in our classes this fall.
10:00 – 11:00pm  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Assessing Capstone Experiences through Digital Stories	Presenter: Dr. Felicia Tuggle (CLASS)
	Audience: Staff (Academic Advisors, Student Support &amp; Student Life) and Any Faculty	Location: Howard Jordan, Room 128
	This interactive, skill-building workshop will provide opportunities for participants to learn how to use digital stories as a way to capture capstone experiences in curricular or co-curricular settings. Examples of student digital stories will be shared to illustrate the reflective and metacognitive dimensions of these projects.
10:30 – 12:00pm  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Engaging Staff in Student Success	Presenters: Mr. Brian Dawsey (Director of Admissions); Mrs. Shatealy Johnson (Loan Default Officer); Mr. Chris Corinthian (Financial Literacy Coordinator); Mr. Shed Dawson (Greek Life Adviser); Mrs. Jora McDonald (QEP Administrative Assistant/Staff Person of the Year); Mr. Johnny McDonald (Advisement Specialist/Chair, Staff Council)
	Audience: Any Staff	Location: Howard Jordan, Torian Auditorium
	As a vital component of the SSU campus community, the staff are essential mentors and assets to our student's success. This session will include a panel discussion with university staff members who will share best practices they utilize in creating and engaging in a culture of student success.
11:00 – 12:00pm  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Tiger Scholar Commons	Presenter: Ms. Autumn Johnson (Information Literacy Librarian)

POLICY/PROCESS TRAININGS

9:00 – 10:00am  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Study Abroad Program Manager and Chaperone Training	Presenter: Ms. Melanie Smith (Study Abroad Coordinator)
	Audience: Any Faculty	Location: Howard Jordan, Room 148
	International Education Center takes new applications from full-time faculty for study abroad programs every year. If you are interested in creating summer international courses for Study Abroad Tigers, this training certifies program managers and chaperones by preparing you for the ins and outs of travel and class development.
9:00 – 10:30am  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Travel Protocols	Presenters: Ms. Erika Ancrum (Accounts Payable Supervisor) and Ms. Regina Adams (Campus Travel Coordinator)
	Audience: Faculty and Staff (*Required for all new SSU employees)	Location: Student Union, Ballroom A
	Attendees will be provided guidance on current state travel policies and the process of travel as it pertains to Savannah State University. Guidelines will be provided to travelers on how to execute their travel requirements at the lowest reasonable costs resulting in the best value for the state and institution.
9:00 – 11:00am  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Active Shooter Training	Presenter: Chief James Barnwell (Public Safety Chief)
	Audience: Faculty and Staff	Location: Student Union, Ballroom B
	This active-shooter training course is intended to prepare members of the SSU community to recognize and quickly respond to a potential or actual active shooter incident. Proper active-shooter training, planning, and preparation may help to reduce the probability of an active-shooter event in a workplace or school — and it may minimize the negative impact of such an incident if one occurs.
10:00 – 11:00am  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	eProcurement (Purchasing Requisition System) Overview	Presenter: Ms. Samantha Hutchinson (Financial Systems Analyst)
	Audience: Faculty and Staff responsible for purchasing in departments or grants	Location: SSB, Room 114
	Attendees will learn how to create and manage requisitions within the PeopleSoft eProcurement module. This session will benefit those individuals charged with the responsibility of entering requisitions for their respective departments and/or grants.
11:00 – 12:00pm  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Classroom Assessment Expectations for Individual Faculty Members	Presenter: Ms. Anita Kirkpatrick (Interim Assessment Coordinator)
	Audience: Any Faculty	Location: Whiting Hall, Chan Auditorium
	Assessment is a cyclical process to improve both teaching and learning. Reinforcing and strengthening a culture of assessment at Savannah State University is essential for continuous improvement of student learning and the maintenance of high quality educational results. ALL faculty members are expected to identify and report how their assessment activities each semester connect and feed into review of student learning performance to benefit the program or institution for AT LEAST THREE courses they teach during the academic year. Learn how to submit the required materials and get your questions answered about the assessment cycle.
11:00 – 12:00pm  (also repeated in the afternoon session)	Best Practices in Budgeting	Presenters: Mr. David Atkins (Interim Comptroller) and Mr. Joel Paulk (Budget Director)
	Audience: Budget Heads/Directors	Location: SSB, Room 113
	Attendees will learn about budget approvals for Travel Authorizations and Check Requests, how to view Budget Activity Reports, budget transfers, and the budget creation process.
