We Are More Than Dormitories...We Are A Community

American higher education has an interesting history. Once students and faculty members lived together in, what was known as, dormitories. College students, most of whom were boys the ages of today's high school students, were subject to strict codes of conduct and regimented schedules. The academic, social, and moral aims of the college were indistinguishable.

Fortunately, higher education changed, allowing students more freedoms, rights, and responsibilities. During such change on college and university campuses, the term "dormitory" was replaced with the term "residence hall." Dormitories or dorms were considered as buildings in which students merely slept. Conversely, residence halls are places that offer more than bunks and pillows; they are environments that augment student learning and development. The shift in terminology may seem minor, but at Savannah State University, and particularly for the Division of Student Affairs, we take seriously our emphasis on residence halls as environments that foster quality student living and as places that extend classroom learning. The Office of Residential Services & Programs employs professional residential living staff committed to student learning and development. Thus, for us, residence halls are environments where student growth and development occurs through formal and informal programs, activities, and through the cultivation of community.

Our residential living facilities are places for student leadership opportunities through the Resident Assistant & Community Assistant Programs, and the Residential Living Association. Inasmuch as these activities, organizations, and programs are offered to enhance student life, it is ultimately up to students to take advantage of these opportunities.

The next time someone refers to your living facility as a dorm, tell him or her that at Savannah State University we have 'residence halls', places where students' collegiate experiences are enriched.

August 10, 2012

Dear Student Resident,

Welcome to Savannah State University! On behalf of our President Dr. Cheryl Davenport Dozier and the entire University community, we are pleased that you have chosen to live on-campus at Savannah State University. You are a part of the select community of students who are fortunate to reside on campus in modern, state-of-the-art residential facilities.

Please know the residential facilities are staffed with professionals who care... they care about you and about helping you make your time at Savannah State University the best experience possible. We are dedicated to you not only as a student, but also as a valued person and customer. We will strive to provide a safe, comfortable environment conducive to your educational, social and overall developmental growth. In addition, we encourage you to take advantage of every opportunity to develop sound working relationships with all those with whom you will share space so as to create a sense of community.

Because we are dedicated to our residents, we in turn would like for you to assist us in our efforts to maintain our residential facilities as quality living/learning environments for future students. You are receiving this copy of the Residential Living Handbook that outlines the policies and regulations that will govern your residential living. Because you will be held accountable for these policies and regulations, we urge you to familiarize yourself with the contents of this handbook and the SSU Student Handbook which is being made available to you during the New Student Orientation or afterwards, at the Office of Student Affairs located in the King-Frazier Student Center.

Again, welcome to Savannah State University and to our residential facilities. We look forward to working with you this academic year!

GREETINGS

Greetings on behalf of the Savannah State University Office of Residential Services & Programs! We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for including campus housing as a part of your University experience. Our residential living staff is committed in its belief that the on-campus living-learning environment enhances the collegiate experience.

You are enrolled at Savannah State University at an exciting time. As you settle into college life, many changes will be taking place at the University and in your life. As an on-campus student, you will have the opportunity to experience situations that are both new and challenging. We hope that you will keep pace successfully with these new challenges and that you will take advantage of everything that Savannah State University has to offer.

As a student at the University, your life will center around campus living. While you are here, you will learn from an excellent faculty, enjoy the beauty of the campus, and thrill at the excitement of Savannah State University athletics and other programs. All of these are part of the wonderful traditions of the University.

Before you become a part of these traditions, you must make some important decisions regarding your particular life-style. This Residential Living Handbook will provide you with many areas of information you will need to help make those decisions. Your decision to live on campus will prove to be an exciting one if you will take advantage of the programs and services that are available. Living on campus will provide you with many opportunities to become involved in the University. On campus living can improve your performance in the classroom. Also, your learning outside the classroom will be enhanced by the wide variety of people you will meet every day.

If along the way you have questions about Residential Living or about Savannah State University, please do not hesitate to talk with a staff member of the Office of Residential Services & Programs. Our staff will be happy to offer any assistance that we can. We may not know the answers to all of your questions, but we will find out where to get them.

Good luck to you as you enter or return to Savannah State University in what we hope will be the start of a great and educationally purposeful academic experience.

Savannah State University is a great place to live and learn!

LaSonya Stovall, Director of Residential Services & Programs

“Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing”

MISSION STATEMENT

The Office of Residential Services & Programs supports the mission of Savannah State University. We do this by providing on-campus student housing that is comfortable, affordable, accessible and secure and by offering opportunities for residents to grow and develop in all aspects of their lives. In addition, we endeavor to be a community of individuals who teach the value of human diversity and who promote civility and the value of good citizenship. We are committed to acting with integrity, dignity, and competence in our service to residents and the University community. The Office of Residential Services & Programs exists to offer opportunities for personal and social development within the framework of its programs and processes. We emphasize educational, recreational, service learning, social and leadership opportunities while helping students mature into responsible citizens.

Academic Support

This goal is accomplished by promoting an environment conducive to learning by enhancing student-faculty interaction in residential settings, and by establishing strong partnerships with other campus departments.

Valuing Diversity

We are committed to being a community of staff and residents in which individual rights are defended and individual differences are respected.

Residential Living Program

On-campus residences are intentionally managed to support the residents' transition from high school to the University as well as successful matriculation through Savannah State University. Citizenship skills are taught through involvement in social and educational programs, self-governance, resident-staff partnerships, student employment opportunities, and resident accountability.

Benefits of Living On-Campus

During the past three years, the University has worked towards improving the quality of residence facilities on-campus, among other programs, facilities, and services. Quality residence halls are central to quality student experiences on a college or university campus. With the development of University Village apartment complex and the Freshmen Living & Learning Center suite-style residential facility and acquisition of the University Commons, our vision to expand housing options for students, the University is redoubling its efforts to better create an exceptional living-learning environment for student success.

From what research tells us and from our own findings, the unique benefits attributed to living on-campus are as follows:

- Residential living appears to have a positive influence on persistence to graduation. In other words, there is a “stronger” relationship between living on-campus and eventually graduating than living off-campus;
- As a result of structured programs, students living on-campus tend to be more involved in various cultural, social, personal, academic, and other co-curricular experiences. This is particularly important in light of our understanding that students who are highly involved in campus programs are more likely to be satisfied with their collegiate experience and to graduate than students who are not involved in such opportunities.
- Students who reside on-campus tend to have significantly greater gains in areas of psychosocial development (e.g., intellectual orientation, autonomy, inner-directedness, and academic and social self-concepts) than their peers who reside off-campus and commute;
- There is some evidence that suggests that students living on-campus experience greater gains in aesthetic appreciation, cultural understandings, intellectual values, and political liberalism than their student counterparts off-campus; and
- In terms of personal development, students who reside on-campus typically are better adjusted, show more initiative, are more trusting, and are less likely to be overly dependent on parents than students who live off-campus.

In sum, it is clear to us that compared to their peers who live off-campus, students residing on-campus experience certain student learning and development that is associated with the interpersonal and academic climate fostered in residence halls and on-campus apartments. Although the University does not have a residency requirement for students, we want all students to be successful and ultimately graduate – living on-campus greatly enhances these desired outcomes.

Residential Living Theme Housing

Program Purpose

The purpose of the Savannah State University Residential Living Theme Housing Program is to promote a direct link between residential, academic and extracurricular life for students at Savannah State University.

The Residential Living Theme Housing Program is designed to provide students who have common educational endeavors or common extracurricular interests with the opportunity to live together in a campus housing setting.

By focusing on a specific area of residential living, the Residential Living Theme Housing program can profoundly impact the experiences of our students on campus by providing academic, fitness and wellness, cultural, community service, leadership and Freshmen Residential Education Experience (F.R.E.E.) themes.

The Residential Living Theme Housing Program will increase students' opportunities to pool their resources, learn from each other and serve as an effective living/learning tool as has been demonstrated at other institutions.

The Residential Living Theme Housing Program will utilize the Freshmen Residential Education Experience program to enhance the educational growth and development of first year students by providing academic enrichment opportunities in the residence halls that will enhance faculty and student interaction. Faculty members will provide freshmen students with evening writing/math labs, tutoring, classes, supplemental instructions, office hours and academic advisement in the resident halls.

Examples of Themes

Getting The Most From College

Getting Involved On-Campus: One of the best things that you can do to ensure your success in college is to get involved with some co-curricular campus activity. Joining an organization will help you make new friends quickly, but will aide in developing leadership skills and networking with peers that may help you in your future career. The experiences you gain outside the classroom will be of great benefit when you begin your job search after college is over. Think of it this way: your degree will qualify you to interview for jobs, but what you did while in college is most likely what can win you a position. Finally, you will feel more connected to your college if you join an organization as well, which will help to motivate you during those periods when you feel discouraged and may consider giving up.

There is virtually no limit to ways that you can get yourself involved. Social organizations, Greek lettered organizations, student government bodies, residence hall councils and committees, as well as work opportunities on the campus can all be outlets for involvement. If you are having a hard time finding something that interests you, talk to your residence hall staff, another student who is involved or visit the Office of Student Programs and Organizations to find ways to get plugged in. It only takes the slightest effort to avail yourself of the wealth of opportunities on campus.

Developing Leadership: Joining an organization is really only the first step in your involvement on campus. Organizational involvement will provide many opportunities for you to develop your skills as a leader. You don't have to be B, vice-president, or secretary of your group to exercise leadership, either. Any initiative that you take to get involved in organizing events and activities, finding ways to improve the organization, or bringing new ideas and perspectives to the group is an exercise in leadership.

Look around your residence hall for opportunities as well. You will find no better place on-campus to assert yourself as a leader than there. The residence hall staff can't do it all. Is there something that you think could make the community better? Get in touch with a staff member who can help plug you into resources, but don't just leave it in their hands. Take the initiative to make your ideas happen. You will find huge payoffs in terms of your social, academic, and professional development, and will get far more out of your residential experience if you do.

Time Management: The college lifestyle is hardly one that can be described as dull or uneventful. There will be a never-ending stream of demands on your time. The earlier that you begin to take control and manage your time, the better your college experience will be. Imagine that at the beginning of each day, some kind individual gave you a huge quantity of cash. Every day you can spend that cash any way you want to, but there's a catch. At the end of the day, you have to give whatever is left over back. You can't keep it and carry over to the next day. If this were true, wouldn't you work to make sure you spent the money in the best way possible every day, so that you could get the most "bang for the buck?" Time operates in the same way; every day you will have a finite supply of time to draw from, but at the end of the day your time to get things done is over. It is important that you insure that you are getting the absolute greatest value out of every minute you spend.

Residential Living Staff

A professionally trained and experienced Resident Hall Director is available in each of our Residential Facilities. Our staff provides information, guidance, direction, programs, and services for residents. Their role is to foster an environment which supports learning, involvement, academic success, and personal development.

Residents may call the front desk of their residential facility (see back page for telephone numbers) to obtain information and assistance in resolving problems with roommate or neighbor disputes, facility concerns, or other issues. It is best to let staff respond or mediate whenever you believe they can help. For resolving complaints of a threatening or dangerous nature, call SSU Public Safety. Please read and be familiar with this handbook for a better understanding of your rights and responsibilities as a resident.

The Office of Residential Services & Programs is located in the King-Frazier Student Center, Room 238. We can be contacted at 912.358.3132 or via fax at 912.358-3632.

Residential Housekeeping & Maintenance Staff

At Savannah State we take pride in our residential facilities. Custodians are responsible for cleaning the public areas of each residence facility Monday through Friday. Limited custodial service is provided on the weekends. However, it is the responsibility of every resident to assist in the upkeep of the hall by picking up areas like the hallway, lobby, and restroom. Residents are expected to keep their room/suite clean and in good condition.

General building and equipment repair needs should be reported to the front desk in your residence facility or to your Residential Director. When you report a maintenance concern, you are giving the maintenance or custodial staff permission to enter your room or apartment to make the repair. An on-site maintenance staff cares for common areas of the complex. Most maintenance requests are performed at no cost to the resident. The following problems should be reported immediately: uncharged fire extinguisher, non-functioning smoke detector, pipe leaks, broken tile or cracked grout, ceiling or wall leaks, and appliance malfunction.

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

Leadership Opportunities

One of the most rewarding experiences you can have at SSU is to take advantage of the many available leadership opportunities. Below are a few of the possibilities.

Residential Services and Programs Staff

The Office of Residence Services and Programs is located in Adams Hall. The Residential Services and Programs staff consists of the Director, Office Manager, Coordinator of Occupancy Management and Assignments, Residential Directors, Resident/Community Assistants and Student Assistants. Office hours are 8:00am-5:00pm. Monday through Friday. You may contact the Office of Residential Services and Programs at (912) 358-3132 or by email at housing@savannahstate.edu.

The Office of Residence Services and Programs works very closely with the Housing Maintenance Staff and Housekeeping Staff. The Maintenance and Housekeeping staff work Monday through Friday and weekends (limited services). Concerns regarding maintenance and/or housekeeping should be reported by contacting your RA/CA/RD or the Office of Residence Services and Programs.

Residential Directors

Residential Directors are responsible for the general welfare of its respective students and facilities. RDs live in an apartment in the building/area to which they are assigned. RDs are responsible for the administration of the residential community, including supervision of the RA/CA staff, advisement of the Resident Hall Association and Hall Council and monitoring of various activities.

Residential Hall Association

Savannah State University Residence Hall Association is an organization that allows residential students to engage in a dynamic role in the residence halls through community service, social and educational programs. The Residence Hall Association is the governing body of the Hall Councils in each of the residence halls. They enable transformation through supporting the topics and concerns of residents with the ultimate goal of creating a living and learning environment within the residence halls. Each residence hall will have a representative on the executive board that will disseminate vital information to the residents as well as the Association. The Association has weekly meetings in each of the residence halls to discuss upcoming events. In addition, the Residence Hall Association will attend the annual state and regional conferences.

Hall Council

There are nine Hall Councils representing each residence hall that will be responsible for designing educational, social, spiritual as well as environmental programs alongside of the student residence hall staff. The Councils hold elections in the beginning of the Fall semester recruiting residents to plan activities for the academic year.

Resident Assistant (Traditional/Suite Style Housing)

Resident Assistants are an important link in the chain between academic achievement and personal growth in the university community. RAs are carefully selected student staff members who have the primary responsibility of advising and guiding residents while enforcing hall policy. They are successful students who have demonstrated leadership skills. RAs are valuable resources if you need help with academic, social, or personal problems. They receive special training in all aspects of residence hall living and usually know the answers to questions you may have (if not, they know where to find out). Your RAs is there to help you as an individual, and your floor as a group, in any way possible. The RAs are available to assist residents with personal and academic concerns, roommate conflicts, and maintenance issues. Each residential hall/area is staffed nightly by an RA on duty. The RAs on duty are responsible for assisting residents with their needs, mentoring activities in their building, reporting work orders, and performing essential administrative tasks for the Residential Services and Programs Staff. These lobbies/offices are staffed 6:00pm to 12:00am Sunday through Thursday, and 12:00pm to 12:00am on Friday and Saturday.

Community Assistant (Apartment-Style Housing)

Community Assistants are responsible for the same administrative/operational functions as an RA. However, CAs are responsible for apartment style living facilities. The offices are staffed from 8:00am-7:00pm Monday-Friday and Sunday. These offices are also equipped with computer labs for resident use.

Activities and Programs

One of the many advantages for SSU students living in on campus residential facilities is the great number of activities and programs available to you. The staff of the Office of Residential Services & Programs offers recreational, social, educational, occupational, values/spiritual, cultural and intellectual programs each month.

Examples of different types of programs include workshops on career planning, choosing a major, dressing for success, time management, stress management, relationships, values, alcohol and drug awareness, eating disorders, Bible study, and social programs such as ice cream parties. Residents are encouraged to submit their ideas and assist the staff in planning programs.

Housing Contract Terms & Conditions

TERMS OF THE CONTRACT

A. Introduction:

All the materials contained herein become and shall be an integral and binding part of all residential facility agreements at Savannah State University (3219 College Street, Box 20551, Savannah, GA 31404; 147 Tompkins Road, Savannah, GA 31404; 4750 LaRoche Ave, Savannah, GA 31404). It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with all sections of this agreement. These terms and conditions are not intended to provide the general or specific residential facility information of a non-contractual nature, which is contained in the Residential Living Handbook and distributed when students check into the residential facility. University regulations and policies affecting residential facility agreements are subject to change. Such changes shall be officially announced and/or posted on bulletin board(s) in each residential facility, and this announcement shall constitute actual notice to residents. The changes shall become effective and binding at the date of such posting or official announcement.

B. University Housing Policy:

First-Year-Freshmen from outside the Chatham County area are expected, but not required, to reside in the residence facilities of Savannah State University. Freshmen, who elect to live on campus, must purchase a full ("freshman") meal plan.

A student who falls under the University Campus Housing Policy cannot be assigned or occupy a room until the Office of Residential Services and Programs (ORSAP) receives his/her Residential Facility Contract/Application, Non-Refundable Application Fee, and signed Meningitis Form. These regulations are applicable to all students insofar as space is available in the University's residential facility. A resident of campus housing must be enrolled at Savannah State University as a full-time student. A resident that drops classes below full-time status at any point during the Fall or Spring semester is subject to be removed from campus housing. (Excluding Summer semester in which a resident student must take a minimum of six (6) credit hours to maintain residency) unless verified by the Registrar's Office as a graduating student in that semester. Priority assignments in the Fall and Spring semesters for returning students will be given to those returning students that are making academic progress towards degree completion. NOTE: Georgia State Regulations say that no assignment to university housing can be made without a completed Meningitis Form (which is attached to this contract/application). Forms are mandatory in addition to other forms provided by student. Shot records are not valid!

C. Fees:

1. Residential Facilities Application and Application Fee:

An application for University Housing can only be submitted AFTER the STUDENT receives an official acceptance to Savannah State University from the Office of Admissions. Submission of a residential facility application, contract, and non-refundable application fee does not guarantee housing. A $50.00 Non-refundable Application Fee must accompany each Savannah State University Housing Application and Residential Facility Contract before an application can be processed and a room assignment can be made.

2. Room and Board Rates (See Current Fee Schedule at: <http://www.savannahstate.edu/fa/Comptroller/tuition.htm>)

D. The University will provide the following:

1. A single twin size extra-long bed (with the exception of University Village which is full size extra-long), dresser or wardrobe, desk chair, desk, mattress pad, and shared bathroom.
2. You will receive a room key. If the room key is lost during the year, you must pay for the re-coring of the room lock and new keys. Keys shall not be duplicated other than by University officials. All keys must be surrendered to the Office of Residential Services and Programs or designated area upon termination of this contract.
3. TV lounges, study lounge, laundry facilities and other amenities exist for residents' use within Residence Facilities.
4. As of the Fall Semester of 2010, land line telephone service will not be provided in any residence hall rooms, suites or apartments.

General Terms and Conditions:

- 1. Purpose: The residential facilities will be used by the students solely for residential and educational purposes.

2. Agreement of Payments:

The student agrees in consideration for the assigned space and meal plan to pay Savannah State University's room and board charges. The room and board charges are payable in full at the time of payment of tuition and fees for each semester. Payment of room and board charges are not contingent upon whether or not a student receives financial aid or loans. Where this applies, single room charges must be paid at the time the single room status takes effect. When damage occurs to any part of the public area of the assigned residential facilities (i.e. hallways, lounges, bathrooms, carpet, etc.), ALL residents of the residential facility will be notified and held responsible for cost of repair or replacement. Each STUDENT is also held responsible for damages and/or fines associated with his/her room or residential facility.

3. Date(s) of Occupancy:

A STUDENT may occupy his/her assigned space from the date designated as the official opening of campus housing to the date designated as the end of the semester in the University Academic Calendar and billing cycle. Students contracting for housing prior to the first day of the term will be held responsible for payment for the entire term regardless of when they check in. Each NEW STUDENT who has not checked into their assigned residential space by 6:00 P.M. of the official check-in date (See Academic Calendar) or has not called the ORSAP to guarantee a late arrival will be declared a no-show and the space will be released for assignment to another. Each RETURNING STUDENT who has not pre-registered (full-time status) for classes by July 31 2012 will forfeit their Fall 2012 room assignment and will be placed on the Waitlist. If the student attends SSU without canceling his/her room assignment ten business days or more prior to the opening day of housing, he/she will be held financial responsible per the following schedule:

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

- (1) 1 to 25 days -----50% adjustment
- (2) 26 to 50 days -----40% adjustment
- (3) 51 to 75 days -----30% adjustment
- (4) 76 to the end of the semester he/she will be financially responsible for the remaining of the semester.

The residential facilities will close for the Christmas break and between Spring and Summer breaks. The residential facilities will close and re-open according to a published schedule (Academic Calendar). Meal plan dates will be provided in the Academic Calendar and may not exactly correspond with the dates residential facilities are open. All STUDENTS must make alternative arrangements, at their expense, for housing and meals during periods of Residential Facilities Closure.

4. Assignment Policy: A $50.00 Non- refundable Application Fee must accompany each Savannah State University Housing Application and Residential Facility Contract before an application can be processed and a room assignment can be made.

The University's ORSAP reserves the right to make assignment of space, to authorize or deny room and roommate changes, to consolidate vacancies and to require a student to move from one room or residential facility to another. The University further reserves the right to require a student to vacate the residential facilities on a temporary or permanent basis for failure to meet financial obligation to the University, exhibiting behavior not conducive to the living-learning environment established in the residential facilities, or failure to remain in good standing with the University. Residents who withdraw from the University are required to vacate the residential facilities upon withdrawal. The ORSAP will attempt to recognize mutual roommate preferences insofar as regular residential facility space is available. A roommate's full name, address and telephone number are required on the application in order to process a roommate preference. For roommate preferences to be honored, both applications must be submitted at the same time and is based on availability.

If Special Accommodations are needed under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), a letter of explanation needs to be attached to the application. Requests for special accommodations must be received at least four months prior to the anticipated occupancy. We recommend that students who require special accommodations contact the Office of Counseling and Disability Services (912) 358-3129.

4. Contract Termination by the University

Upon reasonable notice and for good cause, the university reserves the right to terminate this contract at any time. Examples of good cause include, but are not limited to: 1) failure to make payment of required charges by announced deadlines; 2) a change in student status, including academic or disciplinary suspension; 3) failure to attend classes; 4) failure to comply with state or federal law; residential facilities policies and regulations; and/or rules and regulations as described in the most current issues of the Student Handbook and Residential Living Handbook, this contract and/or its terms; or any other published rule and regulation of the university; 5) failure to admit an officer or agent for reasonable inspection of the room for health, safety or sanitation standards; 6) failure to comply with the direction or order issued by and with the authority of any officer of the university; 7) possession, sale or use of drugs; 8) weapons possession; 9) tampering with life safety equipment or otherwise endangering the safety and/or security of other residents; 10) failure to occupy the assigned space before the established deadlines for each semester; 11) failure to stay registered. Students who use and/or possess illegal drugs or weapons in any residential facility will have their room contract terminated without financial refund. ALL provisions, rules and regulations contained in the Student Handbook and Residential Living Handbook are hereby incorporated by reference and are considered to be a binding and agreed part of this contract.

Should this contract be terminated, the student may be required to vacate the residential facility within 24 hours unless special permission, in writing, has been obtained from the Director of ORSAP or a designee of the department. In the event the student does not vacate within the allowed time period, the room lock will be changed at the student's expense and any property of the student remaining in the residential facility room or building will be treated as abandoned property. All charges for removal and disposal will be assessed to the student.

Termination of any of the above conditions will result in the student being liable for all charges assessed during the term of this agreement and not receiving any refund for current semester room and board fees; forfeiting his/her room reservation.. Students will also be financially responsible for any room damages and unreturned keys and/or access cards and failure to properly check out with a residential facility staff member.

The university reserves the right, at its discretion, to determine that past behavior and/or criminal activity is such that the interests of the university, the student and/or other students would be best served by alterations or cancellation of the contract. If the university becomes aware that a student has a record of criminal conviction(s) or other actions indicating behavior that would pose a risk to person or property and/or could be injurious or disruptive to the residential facility community or the living-learning environment, the university may not accept or may cancel the contract.

A. Students suspended or expelled for disciplinary reasons are not entitled to a refund of any deposit or housing fees or room charges paid.

5. Contract Termination by the Student:

Under certain circumstances, the student may terminate this contract by giving written notification to the ORSAP (refer to number 8). If the student has occupied the assigned space and the request for termination has been approved, he/she must follow proper check-out procedures published in the Residential Living Handbook. Occupancy is defined by the issuance of a key and/or access card to the student for a specified room and does not require actual physical presence by the student and/or his/her possessions. Failure to check-out properly will result in a $100.00 charge for administrative costs, and additional costs may be assessed for a lock change. The student must contact the ORSAP directly to initiate the process to terminate his/her contract.

6. Contract Releases/Cancellation

A. Contract Releases

A student may request, in writing, a release from this contract under the following conditions with no penalty if granted.

1. Graduation
2. Student teaching outside of Chatham County
3. Co-op internship outside of Chatham County
4. Military duty

A student may request, in writing, a release from this contract under the following conditions.

1. Withdrawal from the university
2. Transferring to another school
3. Decide not to live on-campus

Non-Returning Student Cancellation Policy (Fall Semester)

Residents who complete a room and board contract for the academic year, and elect not to enroll at the University for the fall semester and fails to notify The Office of Residential Services and Programs prior to the move-in date will be held financial responsible for $250.00.

Non-Returning Student Cancellation Policy (Spring Semester)

Residents who complete a room and board contract for the academic year, and elect not to return to the University for the spring semester must move out by the official date established by the University for the Residential Facilities to close. If a resident does not move out by this date he/she will be held financially responsible for $250.00.

B. Administrative Withdrawals

Students suspended or expelled for disciplinary reasons are not entitled to a refund of any deposits or fees paid. Students who are asked to vacate their residence hall room as a result of disciplinary actions (but who are allowed to continue classes) are not eligible for a refund on any portion of any fee charged by the Office of Residence Services & Programs.

C. Cancellation Waitlist

In cases where applications exceed the number of bed spaces available and the Housing Coordinator calculates that a limited number of students can be released from their Agreements without resulting in empty beds during the applicable term, students may apply to be released without breach of agreement penalties, after the Binding Date on a first-come, first-served basis. These students may be placed on a cancellation waiting list until such time that the Housing Office determines whether or not projected occupancy warrants their release. Students who are placed on the cancellation waiting list should not assume that they will automatically be released or released without breach of agreement penalties. Students who have requested release and subsequently change their mind must notify Housing Office, in writing.

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

8. Authorization for Crediting Room and Board Charges to Student's BANNER Account:

A credit to the student's account for Room and Board charges will be given, on a prorated basis, only, if the STUDENT follows the prescribed and published residential facility room checkout procedures. The following conditions must be met:

1. When the STUDENT is ready to check out of the assigned room, he/she must contact the residential facility staff (Residence Director or RA/CA).
2. The STUDENT and the residential facility staff (CA, RA or Residence Director) will record any changes on the Unit Condition Report Form.
3. The STUDENT will be held responsible for any damages and discrepancies noted on the Unit Condition Report Form.
4. The STUDENT will receive a duplicate copy. The room key must be returned at this time.

9. Release of Room.

Each NEW STUDENT who has not checked into the assigned residence facilities space by 6:00 P.M. of the official check-in date (See Academic Calendar) or has not called the ORSAP to guarantee a late arrival will be declared a no-show and the space will be released for assignment to another. A notification will be sent to the e-mail address of record to apprise you of the space being taken because of not arriving by the time specified.

If student is deemed as a "no-show" and there is a paying applicant waitlisted to assume the "no-show" student's assigned space, the "no-show" student will automatically be released from their housing agreement.

If a CONTINUING STUDENT fails to occupy his/her assigned space before 6:00 P.M. on the first day of classes without notifying the Office of Residential Services and Programs of a late arrival, the assignment is subject to forfeiture.

Students who complete this contract, enroll for classes at SSU, and fail to honor this contract will be held financially responsible per the schedule listed below, as well as the prorated amount of the board and unlimited laundry charges:

- (1) 1 to 25 days -----50% adjustment
- (2) 26 to 50 days -----40% adjustment
- (3) 51 to 75 days -----30% adjustment
- (4) 76 days to the end of the semester he/she will be financially responsible for the remaining of the semester.

10. Consolidation of Residential Facilities Spaces:

Students in double occupancy rooms who have not contracted for single occupancy and do not have a roommate must pay either a single room rate, obtain a roommate, or change rooms. Students who had assigned roommates and the roommate did not occupy their assigned space or withdrew from campus housing within a month of the end of registration for a term must also adhere to the Room Consolidation requirements. Any room changes must be approved in writing by the ORSAP and be completed within five days after notification to consolidate. If the consolidation has not occurred within a five-day period

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

after official notification by the ORSAP and/or Residence Director, the student will automatically be charged and legally obligated to pay for his or her room on a prorated basis at a single room rate. The student may only contract for a double occupancy room as a single for the remainder of the current semester and is not guaranteed a single room for the next semester.

11. Room Inspections, Searches and Seizures:

Students are guaranteed the rights of any citizen and therefore will not be subject to unreasonable searches and seizures. The courts, however, have recognized the right of the University to conduct reasonable inspections, searches and seizures in order to enforce University regulations. Savannah State University reserves the right to conduct such inspections, searches and seizures within limits of the law (for detailed guidelines reference the Room Inspections, Searches and Seizures section of the Residential Living Handbook and/or Student Handbook)

12. SAVANNAH STATE UNIVERSITY'S RIGHT OF INSPECTION AND ENTRY:

Student/resident agrees that Savannah State University, or its agents or representatives, may enter the assigned space, Unit, or other Units at the University at reasonable hours for the purpose of making inspections and repairs or for the purpose of displaying the assigned space or Unit to prospective student/resident or purchasers. In an emergency situation, Savannah State University may enter at any time to protect life or prevent damage to the Assigned space or Unit. Student/resident by placing a work order for work to be performed authorizes Savannah State University or agent to enter dwelling unit for the purposes of completing that work order in a timely manner.

13. University Liability:

Although security precautions are taken, the University assumes NO responsibility, liability or legal obligation to pay for injury (including death) or the loss or damage of personal property which occurs in its buildings or on its grounds prior to, during, or subsequent to the period of this contract. This includes damage, loss, fire, water damage, theft, flooding, etc. Neither Savannah State University nor any agent of Savannah State University shall be liable in any respect for damages to person or property resulting from the interruption of any utility service or the failure of any defect in any equipment or appliance serving Savannah State University. Students or their parents are strongly encouraged to carry appropriate insurance to cover such losses. The ORSAP has brochures of several companies available that offer insurance for students if they are not covered under their parents' policies.

14. Room Key:

A room key shall be issued to each resident. The key shall remain University property loaned or licensed to the student only so long as the student may rightfully occupy the residential facility room to which said key provides access. The resident shall not deliver, surrender, or otherwise relinquish possession of the room key to any unauthorized individual or permit the key to be duplicated or modified. Unauthorized possession, duplication, or modification of said key may be grounds for formal prosecution. The student shall deliver possession of said key to an authorized University official immediately upon termination of the student's right to occupy the room to which said key provides access or otherwise immediately upon demand of such official. Violation of any provision in this paragraph may be grounds for declaring the student in breach of the contract or other action by the University. Loss of the room key will result in a core change for which the student will be required to pay the current fee upon notification of the key being lost.

15. Meal Plan/Student Identification Card:

All freshmen living on campus must purchase a "freshman meal plan", regardless of their housing assignment. All other resident undergraduate students, aged 24 and under, must purchase at least an "upper-class meal plan", but may purchase a freshman plan. Resident students aged 25 and older, as well as graduate students, are exempt from the meal plan requirement. There is no refund for missed meals or carry-overs to another semester during the meal contract period. It is mandatory that the Student Identification/Meal card is carried at all times and is not transferable. This is a University-wide rule applying to all STUDENTS. For a medical disability or employment meal reduction, contact the Office of Auxiliary Services for required documentation. Special dietary needs will be considered. Resident meal plans are refunded on a prorated basis to students who do not stay in housing the entire semester. Dining dollar plans can only be purchased through the first Friday of the semester and can only be refunded through the 9th full week of the semester.

F. Subletting: This housing agreement shall not be transferred or assigned to any person other than the person as named therein.

It is hereby mutually agreed that all provisions of the Student Handbook, Residential Living Handbook, all provisions and policies of the Office of Residential Services and Programs and Auxiliary Services, all University regulations, all Federal, State, and local laws, are binding upon the contract.

Savannah State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution in accordance with Civil Rights legislation and does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap, or other factors prohibited by law in any of its educational programs, activities, admissions or employment policies.

Check-In Procedures

Residents are required to adhere to the following procedures:

1. All residents in traditional residence halls must agree in writing for visitation in their room.
2. Receive room key from assigned residential facility if room confirmation was received prior to the beginning of the fall semester.
3. Receive Residential Living Handbook and complete and sign the Room Condition Report (RCR) and return it to a RA or CA; must return within 48 hours.
4. Check-in cards must be filled out to finalize the move-in process. (Valid contact information required)

Keyless Entry System

The Suite Style and Traditional/Suite Style Residence Halls are equipped with keyless card readers to gain access to these residential facilities. By sliding the magnetic stripe on the back of the SSU ID Card through the reader, you will gain access to your residence hall. The residents only have access to their particular residential facility. Therefore, it is important to keep your ID card visibly displayed on your person at all times to access your respective residential facility.

The apartment-style residence facilities are equipped with keyless card readers to gain access to computer labs, laundry facilities, and other common areas. It is very important that students do not allow non-campus residents into these areas.

NOTE: If you lose your ID card, please report it immediately to the SSU ID card Office located on the first floor of King-Frazier Complex.

Private Rooms (Double as a Single)

Suite Style and Traditional/Suite Style Residence Halls Only: You may request to occupy a double room as a single (private) if space is available after all residence hall students have checked in and registration has officially ended (drop and add periods included). This type of room assignment is offered on a space available basis only and requests are granted on a first-come, first-serve basis. Students may only contract for a double occupancy room as a single for the remainder of the current semester and are not guaranteed a single room for the next semester. Rates for single rooms are available in the Office of Residential Services & Programs. Contact your RD if you are interested in a single room.

Withdrawals

Students who withdraw, get suspended, or dismissed from the University are required to remove their belongings from the residence hall or apartment unit and check out of their room or apartment within 24 hours of the time the suspension, withdrawal or dismissal goes into effect. Students who receive a summary suspension must remove their belongings from the residence hall or apartment unit and check out of their room immediately.

Room or Apartment Unit Changes

If, after you arrive on campus and check-in to your assigned room or apartment and you want to move to another room or hall, or apartment unit you must get approval from your facility director. Room changes are granted on a first-come, first-serve basis. Illegal room changes are subject to fines and/or disciplinary action. All persons wishing to voluntarily transfer their housing assignment will be charged a $50.00 transfer fee and must fill out the appropriate paperwork with their respective housing facility and the Housing Office.

Unauthorized Moving

Unauthorized room and hall or apartment unit changes are prohibited. If you wish to change rooms or halls or apartment unit, please review the "Room Changes" section.

Illegal Residence

All students residing in a residence hall or apartment unit have a contract or lease agreement on file and pay the required room and board charges according to the University fee schedule. Any student found living illegally in a residence hall or apartment unit or any student that houses another person, student or otherwise, illegally, will be subject to disciplinary action and/or charged a housing fee.

Holiday & Between Semester Breaks

Suite Style and Traditional/Suite Style Residence Halls: The residence facilities will be closed for the Christmas break and between Spring & Summer semesters. The residence halls will close and re-open according to a published schedule (see Academic Calendar). All students must make alternative arrangements, at their expense, for housing and meals during periods when residence halls and dining halls are closed. It is strongly recommended that you take all your valuables home. Personal belongings left in the room will be the responsibility of the student.

University Village & University Commons: University Village and University Commons are open with restrictions during the Christmas break and between Spring & Summer semesters. If you cannot leave during those times, contact the Housing Office for costs and to make arrangements to have your apartment available to you. All students needing alternative housing must fill out a break-over form to reside during the break. Meal and housekeeping services are not available during holiday breaks. Only limited staff and maintenance support will be available to residents during such breaks.

NOTE: All STUDENTS needing alternative arrangements for housing during these periods can do so with University Village or University Commons for an applicable fee. Students requesting such arrangements with University Village or University Commons MUST be pre-registered for the coming term and MUST have a contract/leasing agreement on file for the forthcoming semester.

SPECIAL NOTE: Residents of University Commons and University Village returning for the Spring semester do not have to check out of their room or apartment unit or return their room or apartment key(s) at the end of the Fall semester. Residents returning to the Traditional/Suite Style Residence Halls (Bowen-Smith, Camilla Hubert, Tiger Pointe, Tiger Place, Tiger Court, Bostic and Freshmen Living and Learning Center) for the Spring semester do not have to check out of their rooms but each resident must turn in their room key at the end of the Fall semester. Only those residents not returning to on-campus housing for the next term/semester must comply with the room/apartment clearance procedures. It is highly recommended that students take all their valuables when they leave for breaks.

Check-Out Procedures

If during the school year you are released officially by the University through official withdrawal, break your housing contract or lease agreement, or if you obtain approval for a room or hall change or apartment unit change, you will be required to checkout of your present room or apartment with your RD, RA or CA staff.

Residents must adhere to the following check-out procedures:

1. Notify your RD or designated RA or CA prior to your planned check-out;
2. Sign-up for a time for your RD or designated RA or CA to check you out of your room;
3. Remove all personal items and trash from your room, closet, drawers, and bathroom;
4. Except for University furniture, your room should be completely vacant and sanitary (this includes: sweeping the floor/stairwell and wiping down counters) at the time of check-out;
5. Meet your RD or designated RA or CA at the office at the scheduled time of checkout;
6. Review Room Condition Report (RCR) and complete and sign room clearance form and turn in your room key.

NOTE: There will be a charge for rooms or apartment units left in an unacceptable condition and a charge for failing to return the room key(s). Failure to check-out properly with the appropriate staff will result in fines. These procedures are applicable when a resident's contract or lease agreement terminates at the end of the academic year and/billing cycle for a specific period.

Abandoned Items

Personal items left in residence hall rooms or apartment units after the resident has officially checked-out, and/or contract/lease agreement period ends officially will be considered as abandoned items and will be disposed of accordingly by housekeeping staff. The University will not assume any responsibilities for items left behind nor will the University store such items for the resident (see Storage Policy).

Responsibility for the Assigned Room/Apartment

The student is responsible for the condition of the assigned room or apartment unit and shall reimburse the University, for all damage to the room or apartment, and damage to, or loss of, fixtures, furnishings, or properties furnished under the contract/lease agreement. No alterations are to be made in the furniture provided by the University. Additional furnishings brought into the room must be freestanding and clear of all existing furniture, fixtures or walls contained in the room or apartment unit. Each resident will be required to complete a Room Condition Report (RCR) upon occupancy. When occupancy is terminated, an occupant must obtain room or apartment unit clearance. This will be accomplished by a staff member who will inspect the room and relieve the occupant of responsibility for the room (including key) or assess for damages or missing property. Those students vacating rooms or apartment units without following this procedure will be fined accordingly, plus the cost of any repairs resulting from damages inflicted during occupancy.

Responsibility for Communal Property

Communal property includes hallways, baths, stairwells, lounges, study rooms, meeting rooms, utility rooms and kitchens. Residents are expected to take every precaution to assure that communal property is not abused or defaced. In halls/apartments or sections wherein the University has determined that the majority of the residents are tolerating undue abuse of University property and the responsible individual(s) cannot be identified, all residents will be held responsible for paying a prorated share of the cost of labor and/or supplies for such abuses. When organizations are given the opportunity of having exclusive use of an area, those organizations will be held responsible for reimbursing the University for such abuses should they occur.

Code Blue Emergency Telephone

Emergency call phones are strategically placed around the campus for student's use in case of emergency for direct access to campus police.

University Mail Services

The SSU Mail Center is located on the first floor of King-Frazier Complex, across from the University Bookstore. Stamps and money orders can be purchased there, and letters or packages can be mailed. Resident students are each charged a nominal fee for a mail box. The service window is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, except for University holidays.

Policies and Procedures

All resident students will be assigned a mailbox. Please present your SSU ID card to the University Mail Center for your mailbox assignment. The first two weeks of the semester, mailbox assignments will be made during normal window hours (8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.); after the first two weeks, mailbox assignments will be made between the hours of 11:00 a. m. and 3:00 p.m., Tuesday – Thursday.

You will be given your mailbox combination at the time you receive your mailbox assignment. Please make sure that you memorize, or write down this number. Duplicate mailbox combination requests will only be given out between the hours of 2:00 and 3:00 p.m., Tuesday through Thursday. Please note that Mail Center employees are not allowed to retrieve mail out of a mailbox.

Mail should be addressed in this form:

JOHN/JANE DOE
BOX 00000
Savannah State University
3219 College Street
Savannah, Georgia 31404

If you are returning the subsequent semester and living in a residence hall, you will not be required to clear your box with the SSU Mail Center staff. You will keep the same mailbox, as long as you have applied for housing by July 1. Otherwise, your mailbox may be reassigned to an incoming student.

If you plan to take a break during a semester or withdraw, be sure to provide the United States Postal Service (USPS) with your completed Change of Address form (3575) which is available at the SSU Mail Center or can be downloaded from www.usps.gov. Be sure to include the street address of the University (3219 College Street, Savannah, GA 31404). First Class Mail (only) will be returned to the sender if it remains dormant in the mailbox for thirty days. Packages will be returned to sender at the end of each semester or held for 30 days, whichever is greater.

In the summer, you may request a temporary change of address from the USPS.

Due to the shortage of mailboxes, the University is unable at this point to provide students who reside off campus with a mailbox.

Student-to-Student Mailbox Service

Through the mailbox service, SSU students may send mail without postage to other SSU resident students, staff, or faculty (name and box number required).

The following mail services are available:

Priority Mail	Return Receipt
Express Mail	Confirmation Mail
Global Priority Mail	Priority and Express envelopes and boxes
International Mail-Surface and Airmail	Federal Express
Registered Mail	Stamps
Certified Mail	Insured Mail
Fax Service

The following payment options may be used for these services: check, cash, credit card, debit card, and SSU ID Card Flex Funds.

Incoming Mail

Morning mail is scheduled for delivery in mailboxes by approximately 11:30 AM, depending on the amount of mail received at the University. Afternoon mail is scheduled for delivery in mailboxes by approximately 3:00 PM. Package notifications are sent to you via your Savannah State e-mail account or in your mailbox. You must present your SSU ID Card in order to pick up a package.

Out Going Mail

Mail is picked up from the Mail Center at approximately 2:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

SSU Bookstore and C-Store

The Savannah State University Bookstore is operated under a contract with a company specializing in bookstore management. Where provided to the bookstore, textbooks are listed by class on the SSU Bookstore website: www.savannahstatebookstore.com. In addition to textbooks and school supplies, the bookstore carries SSU clothing, convenience store items for on-campus and off-campus students, and trade books. The C-Store (convenience store) is located off the lobby on the first floor of the Student Union. They carry paper products, microwave food, cold soft drinks, and your favorite toiletries/cosmetic products. Bookstore hours are posted on the bookstore's web site and at the bookstore. Signs will be posted at the beginning of each semester informing students of when the University Business Office has determined that book vouchers can be used (or see the Academic Calendar). Also, signs are posted informing students of when books may be bought back by the bookstore.

Parking Decals and Regulations

In order to maintain an orderly traffic flow and to assure fair and equal access to parking on Savannah State University's campus, all vehicles (including motorcycles) must obtain a parking decal and complete the requisite registration information. The resident parking decal entitles a student to park in a space designated for residence hall parking during restricted hours (currently 7:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.). Resident parking permits cost $45.00 per year and can be purchased at the University Cashier's office, after completing the application form found at www.savannahstate.edu/decal. Replacement parking decals are $10.00, plus the cost of any outstanding tickets.

Parking double, in fire lanes or in designated staff, faculty, or commuter/visitor spaces during restricted hours, or anytime in a reserved space, will result in the vehicle being ticketed, booted, and/or towed at vehicle owner's expense. The University is not responsible for damage which may occur during towing. Vehicle reconditioning, repair, maintenance (including changing of oil or changing tires) is not permitted within any parking lots at Savannah State University. Car washing is only allowed in designated areas. Vehicles without decals and vehicles deemed inoperable or in disrepair by management may be removed at owner's cost. Additional parking information and fines as well as the ticket appeals process, is found at <http://www.savannahstate.edu/fiscal-affairs/parking.shtml>.

Services for Students with Disabilities

It is our goal to provide services and resources that eliminate barriers and help students feel as much a part of the community as possible.

Students who live in the Residence Halls are expected to register any significant medical or psychological conditions with the Community Director and with the SSU Harris McDrew Health Center so that we may properly assist you in case of an emergency. These conditions should be reported on the Housing application and on the Medical History form. Illnesses, injuries, medical emergencies and incidents where students are recovering from surgery should be reported to a member of the Residence Hall Staff immediately.

The Harris McDrew Health Center is located at the end of Jasmine Rd and is open Monday through Thursday from 8:00 AM- 10:00 PM and 8:00 AM to 7:00 PM on Friday. Primary care services are free to students with a current SSU ID. Phone number is 912 358 4122. Fax number is 912 692 4582. You should have your physician send your Medical Records to the staff at the Health Center. Mailing address is:

Harris McDrew Health Center
Savannah State University
Box 20448 3219 College St.
Savannah GA 31404

If you need assistance with a referral to a local medical doctor for specialized care, the Nurses at the Health Center can assist you with referral. We strongly urge you to make arrangements to transfer medical records, meet with the local specialist and get on the local doctor's caseload as soon as possible instead of waiting until you have a medical crisis. It is often difficult for our students from out of town to get back home to their doctor in a medical crisis during the semester. If you are not already on a local doctor's caseload, there can be lengthy waits for a new patient appointment, so please plan ahead.

Applying for Disability Special Accommodations in Housing

The Coordinator of Disability Services works in cooperation with Residential Services and Programs to assist students with special on-campus housing needs. To apply for accommodations in housing, students should submit their application for Housing as soon as possible, attaching a letter regarding their requested needs to the application. They should also promptly contact the Coordinator of Disability Services at 912 358 3115, set up an intake appointment with the Coordinator to determine if there is a need for accommodations, and what accommodations are appropriate and reasonable and obtain the printed documentation requirements. The student will submit medical documentation to the Coordinator from the appropriate professional to support the need for adaptations in housing. In general, documentation for disability housing requests should include:

1. Documentation of the disabling condition or need that is the basis of the request
2. A clear description of the needed housing configuration
3. An explanation of how the request relates to the impact of the disabling condition
4. Possible alternatives if the recommended configuration is not possible.
5. An indication of the level of need for the recommended configuration (and the consequences of not receiving).

Below is a summary of factors considered when evaluating disability housing requests:

Severity of the Condition:

Is impact of the condition life threatening?

Is there a negative health impact that may be permanent if the request is not met?

Is the request an integral component of a treatment plan for the condition in question?

What is the likely impact on academic performance if the request is not met?

What is the likely impact on social development if the request is not met?

What is the impact on the student's level of comfort if the request is not met?

Timing of the Request:

Was the request made with initial housing request?

Was the request made before the deadline for housing requests for the semester in question?

Was the request made as soon as possible after identifying the need? (Based on date of diagnosis, receipt of housing assignment, change in status, etc...)

Feasibility and Availability

Is space available that meets the student's needs?

Can space be adapted to provide the requested configuration without creating a safety hazard?
(electrical load, emergency egress, etc.?)

Are there other effective methods of housing configurations that would achieve similar benefits as the requested configuration?

How does meeting this request impact housing commitments to other students?

If the Coordinator finds an appropriately documented disability need, a letter from the Coordinator requesting appropriate accommodations will be submitted to Residential Services and Programs.

Students with special housing needs will be accommodated only if they submit their housing contract within the time limits established by Residential Services and Programs (four months notice is requested) or if the waiting list for housing is able to serve them. Late requests for accommodations after housing assignments have been made may not be able to be fulfilled.

There are wheelchair accessible units in Tiger Pointe, Tiger Court, Tiger Place, University Village, the Commons and the Freshmen Learning and Living Center for students who use wheelchairs. Students with no mobility impairment who accept a room or apartment designed for wheelchair accessibility do so with the understanding that they may be required to move if a student who uses a wheelchair requires that space.

Transport Resources

Savannah State University provides a free rotating shuttle bus that is wheelchair accessible around campus for all students during the week. Information about routes, stops and hours can be obtained from Auxiliary Services at 912 358 3111. Individual transport is not available.

Chatham Area Transit (CAT) provides city bus transport from the Falligant Avenue gate bus stop. Their website is catchacat.org and their business office number is 912 236 2111. They also provide a reservation based door to door transport service called CAT Teleride for people with disabilities. To register for CAT Teleride, call (912) 354 6900.

Disability Parking

The university does not provide disability parking tags or placards. These can be obtained through the drivers' license office or county tag office. Students who need to park in disability parking must pay for and display appropriate SSU parking decals.

Service Animals

Definitions:

A "service animal" is any animal individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability. These tasks include but are not limited to: guiding individuals with impaired vision, alerting individuals who are hearing impaired to intruders or sound, providing minimal protection or rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items. Service animals are permitted on university property and in university housing under the conditions stated below.

A “therapy/emotional support animal” is prescribed to an individual by a healthcare or professional. A therapy/emotional support animal is not a service animal. Unlike a service animal, a therapy/emotional support animal does not assist a person with a disability with activities of daily living, nor does it accompany a person with a disability at all the times. Students are not permitted to keep therapy animals on university property or in university housing.

A “pet” is an animal kept for ordinary use and companionship. A pet is not considered a service animal or a therapy/emotional support animal, and, therefore, it is not covered by this policy. Students are not permitted to keep pets on university property or in university housing.

Verification of Disability and Need for a Service Animal

A person desiring the assistance of a service animal to use university facilities and services must provide verification to the University Office of Counseling and Disability Services that he or she has a qualifying disability and that the service animal is needed for the use and enjoyment of university facilities and services. The person's health care provider, who is qualified to make the requested assessment, must submit a signed letter on professional letterhead expressing the following:

1. The provider's diagnosis of the person's condition.
2. The provider's opinion that the condition affects a major life activity.
3. The provider's professional opinion that the service animal is used to help with the person's daily living activities and is necessary to use and enjoy university facilities and services.
4. The provider's description of what service(s) the animal will specifically provide.
5. Any additional rationale or statement the university may reasonably need to understand the basis for the professional opinion.

Training

Service animals must be properly trained. An owner of a service animal may be asked to provide verification that the animal has been individually trained as a service animal to provide the service needed. Acceptable verification is a letter provided by agency personnel who trained the animal.

Leash/ Harness

If appropriate the animal must be on a leash or harness, unless the leash or harness would inhibit the animal's ability to be of service.

Care and Supervision

Care and supervision of the animal are the responsibility of the individual who benefits from the animal's use. The person is required to maintain control of the animal at all times, where consistent with the capacity of the service animal user. The person is also responsible for ensuring the cleanup of the animal's waste and, when appropriate, must toilet the animal in areas designated by the University consistent with the reasonable capacity of the owner.

Vaccination

In accordance with local ordinances and regulations the animal must be immunized against diseases common to that type of animal. Dogs must have current vaccination against rabies and wear a rabies vaccination tag. Local licensing requirements are followed.

Health

Animals to be housed in university housing must have an annual clean bill of health from a licensed veterinarian. Documentation can be a vaccination certificate for the animal or a veterinarian's statement regarding the animal's health.

Removal of Service Animal

The University may exclude/remove a service animal when it 1) poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others or 2) results in a fundamental alteration of the University's program.

Damage

Owners of service or therapy/emotional support animals are solely responsible for any damage to persons or university property caused by their animals.

Areas Off Limits to Service Animals

The University may prohibit the use of service animals in certain locations due to health and safety restrictions (e.g. where the animals may be in danger, or where their use may compromise the integrity of research). Restricted areas may include, but are not limited to, the following areas: custodial closets, boiler rooms, facility equipment rooms, research laboratories, classrooms with research/demonstration animals, areas where protective clothing is necessary, wood and metal shops, motor pools, and rooms with heavy machinery and areas outlined in state law as being inaccessible to animals.

Conflicting Disabilities

Residential Services personnel will make a reasonable effort to notify tenants in the residence building where the animal will be located of the existence of a service or therapy/emotional support animal in the building.

Students with medical condition(s) that are affected by animals (respiratory diseases, asthma, severe allergies) are asked to contact the Office of Counseling and Disability Services if they have a health or safety related concern about exposure to a service or therapy/ emotional support animal. The individual will be asked to provide medical documentation that identifies the condition(s), and will allow determination to be made as to whether the condition is disabling and whether there is a need for an accommodation.

The Office of Counseling and Disability Services and Residential Services staff will resolve any conflict in a timely manner. Staff members will consider the conflicting needs and/or accommodations of all persons involved. The staff may use the Harris McDrew Student Health Center as a resource for information on health issues.

Resident Dining

Savannah State University contracts with a company specializing in contract food services to operate the dining services venues at SSU, under the direction of the Auxiliary Services Office. The Office of Residential Services & Programs assigns students to their required board plan at the time their housing assignment is made, in accordance with the housing contract.

All resident students at Savannah State University are required to be on a meal plan, except for resident students aged 25 and older, as well as graduate students, who are exempt. First-time freshman students will be automatically billed for a 20-meal-a-week plan, and non-freshman students will be billed for a 14-meal-a-week plan, but may upgrade to a 20-meal-a-week plan for both Spring and Fall Semesters.

Freshmen resident students may choose the 15-meals-a-week plus 200 dining dollars plan instead of the 20-meal-a-week plan, and non-freshmen students may choose the 10-meals-a-week plus 200 dining dollars plan instead of the 14-meal-a-week plan. All freshmen plans cost the same and all non-freshmen plans cost the same. These choices must be made by the first Friday of the semester. At the end of Fall Semester, the chosen meal plan will automatically be assigned to Spring Semester. Any changes must be requested by the first Friday of the Spring Semester.

Additional meal plan information:

- Meal plan weeks begin on Monday and end on Sunday.
- Meal plan options for non-freshman residents must be chosen by the first Friday of the semester; otherwise, it will be necessary to wait until the next semester to change plans.
- If no meal plan is chosen, students will be assigned to the default meal plan (20 meals a week for freshman and 14 meals a week for non-freshman).
- There are no refunds for missed meals or unused dining dollars.
- Dining dollars may be used at any of the dining venues on campus, for the following:
 - o In the dining hall when you have run out of meal swipes for the week (the casual rate will be charged)
 - o Instead of a meal swipe at a retail venue (the total amount of the food purchased will be charged)
 - o In addition to a meal swipe at a retail venue (the amount of the food purchased, less the meal equivalency, will be charged)

There is no refund for missed or carry-overs to another semester during the meal contract period. A smaller meal plan is only available by completing the documentation necessary for a meal plan reduction (see information below). Any meal plan reduction must be requested and documented each semester.

Resident board plans will be charged on a prorated basis if a student leaves resident housing during the semester.

Meal Plan Reductions

Meal plans can be reduced to 14 meals for freshmen or 5 meals a week for non-freshmen. To apply for this reduction, please complete the Meal Plan Reduction Request Form found at Auxiliary Services and follow these procedures:

FOR MEDICAL DISABILITY REASONS

- Provide a Physician Statement Form (obtainable from Auxiliary Services) from your physician (M.D. or D.O.) that verifies your dietary requirements for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. The Food Service Director will review the diet. You will be informed if your request is granted or if additional information is required. In extreme cases, the meal plan can be waived for medical reasons.

FOR EMPLOYMENT REASONS

- Obtain a signed and dated letter from your employer on their letterhead that details your weekly work schedule, along with your class schedule. Auxiliary Services will review your documents and inform you if your request is granted or if additional information is required. If the work reduction is granted, the student agrees to present the first three (3) pay stubs to the Auxiliary Services office within the first 45 days of the semester in which the waiver was granted.
Employment reduction is not available for students who work in any on-campus capacity.

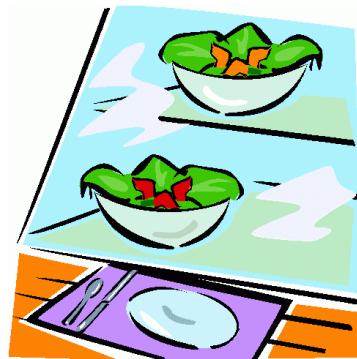

Failure to submit the first three (3) pay stubs within the first 45 days of the semester will result in the student being put back on their original meal plan without notice.

Submit the above to the Office of Auxiliary Services in Room 127 King-Frazier Complex, along with the reduction request form. These requests are available anytime during the semester. Reductions will transfer from Fall to Spring Semester; however, off-campus employment reductions require that three pay stubs be provided to the Auxiliary Services office within the first 45 days of the Spring Semester.

Dining Locations

Main Dining Hall

Meal plan participants and paying customers enjoy the privileges of unlimited seconds at the main dining hall in King-Frazier. All meal plan participants must present a valid student ID card to the cashier prior to entering the cafeteria. All foods must be consumed in the cafeteria. No carry out is allowed from the cafeteria, except with an authorized slip signed by appropriate personnel; i.e. University Health Services or Coordinator of Disability Services.

Tiger Express Diner

This retail operation across from Kennedy Hall offers a variety of grilled and fried foods, assorted cold and hot beverages, fresh green salads and assorted sandwiches. A meal swipe equivalency may be used to purchase individual items or designated combo meals.

Student Union Food Court

Start your morning with a treat at Starbucks, then have lunch at Austin Grill, Chicken Shack, Tiger Deli, or Culture Shock. As a retail operation, a meal swipe equivalency may be used to purchase individual items or combo meals.

Dining Hall Hours

Dining Hall hours are posted on the SSU Dining Services web site (www.savannahstate.edu/fiscal-affairs/dining-services.shtml) and at each dining venue. Hours may vary during each semester, and on holidays.

SSU ID Card

All students (residing on-campus or off-campus) are required to obtain an SSU ID Card from the ID Card Office upon initial registration at Savannah State University. It is mandatory that the SSU ID Card be visibly displayed at all times while on-campus. Cards are automatically validated for students who are registered for classes the specified semester and will not work in any location until the student is registered. The SSU ID Card is not transferable. Only the first card is issued without a fee. This applies to all students..

Lost cards must be reported immediately to the ID Card Office to prevent unauthorized use of any meals or dollars placed on the card.
Lost or Stolen ID Card - $35.00. Damaged ID Card – no charge, if damaged card is turned in and the magnetic strip can be read to determine it is the most recent card issued.

Flex Funds can be placed on the cards at the PHIL machine located next to the window right inside the front door of the King-Frazier Student Center or next to the ATM in the Student Union. In addition to student copiers and Pay-for-Print, flex funds on the ID card can be used for purchases at the Document Center, Mail Center, and student copiers in the Howard Jordan and Colston Administration Buildings. Please read thoroughly the Cardholder Agreement that you will sign when you receive your ID Card, as this has additional terms and conditions related to your card.

Copy and Fax Services

Copies can be made at the library using cash or the library card system, or at the Document Center counter. The Document Center is available to make copies, faxes, posters, banners, announcement, etc. The Document Center accepts cash, check, credit card, and SSU ID Card flex funds. Faxes are also provided at a fee at the Mail Center.

Pay-for-Print

The Pharos Pay-for-Print system administers printing services in all computer laboratories. SSU ID cards will authorize access to the Pay-for-Print system.

At the start of each semester, students will receive a $10 print credit subsidized by the student technology fee. The SSU ID Cards will debit $0.10 per page for black/white copies and $0.25 per page for color copies. Proceeds from the Pay-for-Print service are placed back into the technology fund for maintenance, paper, and toner.

To add flex funds to SSU ID cards for the Pay-for-Print system, use the PHIL in the King-Frazier Student Center near the Savannah ballroom (the unit closest to the windows) or next to the ATM in the Student Union.

If there are any questions relating to Pay-for-Print, please call the Helpdesk at 912-358-HELP or visit the helpdesk website @ www.savannahstate.edu/it/helpdesk.

Residential Living Policy and Procedures

Administrative Action

The Office of Residential Services & Programs in conjunction with the Division of Student Affairs' Office of Student Ethics reserves the right to take administrative action against students who fail to adhere to the rules and regulations of the University as stated in this handbook, housing contract, and other University publications.

The University reserves the right to revoke housing privileges and to remove students guilty of repeated violations of the Guide of Residence Hall Living including the Student Code of Conduct from all University housing. If the action of a student is such extreme nature as to upset the orderly procedures of the University, the student may be suspended immediately and required to leave campus.

Appeal Process: (24 Hour Limit)

When an on-campus residential student is charged with a violation of the Student Conduct Code which breach of residential hall regulations in or around the residential halls, the case will be investigated, processed, and a final disposition given by the appropriate official within the Office of Residential Services and Programs. In cases where breach of residential hall rules and regulations are involved, the disposition of the student's case shall be conducted according to the University's due process requirements, in keeping with the procedures outlined below.

1. All complaints of alleged violation(s) by resident students shall be made by the Office of Residential Services and Programs within 24 hours of the violation. Each complaint shall contain a statement of facts outlining each alleged act of misconduct and the individual(s) known to be involved.
2. The resident student shall be notified by the Office of Residential Services and Programs of the accusations of violation and will be asked to come to the Office of Residential Services and Programs for a conference to discuss the complaint.
3. At the above mentioned conference, the student shall be advised of the following options and asked to indicate a preference.
 - a. An informal Hearing before the Director of Residential Services and Programs or official designee in which the Director of Residential Services and Programs or official designee will take appropriate action. If the resident student chooses an Informal Hearing, they assume the responsibility for the alleged violation(s) and waive their right to appeal.

Advertising

Suite Style and Traditional/Suite Style Residence Halls: Each residence hall has bulletin boards in public and other appropriate areas. Posters and flyers are not to be posted on walls, windows, or doors. All advertisement material must be approved by RD or RA/CA staff of that particular residential facility before posting. Material will be removed and/or violators will be fined or lose privileges to use residence facilities. Groups posting announcements must have permission from the Office of Student Programs and Organizations located in the King-Frazier Student Center room 244 prior to posting on any university facilities.

University Village/University Commons: The bulletin boards in the common area are for use by the staff of University Village/University Commons. If you would like to post items in the Reception Desk area or on the bulletin boards, you must get prior approval from the Office of Student Programs and Organizations located in the King-Frazier Student Center room 244 prior to posting on any university facilities.

Babysitting and Childcare

Small children are not permitted to reside in all Residence Halls. This includes all the Traditional/Suite Style Halls as well as the Commons and University Village. The University assumes no responsibility nor does it make provisions for children. Students are not permitted to use their assigned room/apartment for babysitting or childcare. The presence of infants and babies are ONLY ALLOWED during the move-in and move-out only. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.

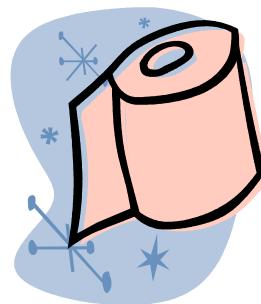

Balcony/Patio

The balcony or patio shall be kept neat and clean at all times. No rugs, towels, laundry, clothing, appliances, or other items shall be stored, hung, or draped on railings or other portions of balcony or patio. Storage/use of cooking grills is not permitted on balconies or patios. Fines will be assessed if furniture or any other unauthorized items are found on the patio.

Bathrooms

For residents of the Freshmen Living & Learning Center, Camilla Hubert, Tiger Pointe, Tiger Place and Tiger Court residents are responsible for the regular cleaning of bathrooms because of suite arrangements. In halls with community baths (Bostic and Bowen-Smith) the housekeepers shall clean regularly, but students are expected to help keep the bathroom neat and clean by not damaging the facilities or the products put there for their convenience. For their own safety, residents are not allowed in the bathrooms during cleaning times. Only members of the sex for which they are designated may use residence hall bathrooms. Common bathrooms on wings or floors are for the use of residents only.

The residents of the room(s) and same sex guests should only use suite and room bathrooms; guest bathrooms are located in the lobby area for other visitors.

BBQ Grills at University Commons (ONLY)

The following guidelines apply when BBQ or Grilling at University Commons (ONLY):

LOCATION: BBQ's/Grilling can only be accommodated at grills provided by the University. No students are allowed to BBQ or Grill with personal grills and students are not allowed to BBQ or Grill indoors (i.e. George Foreman grill, etc.).

Students are only allowed to grill until 10pm - any day of the week. Please check availability and submit a Reservation Request Form at the Leasing Office at least five (5) working days in advance of your desired BBQ or Grill out date.

REQUIRED SAFETY GUIDELINES:

- Have a dry chemical fire extinguisher within access, but no closer than 10 feet to the cooking area (see Leasing Office to checkout fire extinguisher as part of your reservation).
- Have some means to report a fire, such as a cell phone.
- Lighter fluid is not permitted. Match Light coals are the only charcoal approved for use. Wood, Paper or any other unapproved items are not allowed.
- Coals must be fully extinguished and cool prior to disposal (do not dispose on the ground).
- The grill must be cleaned after each usage (cleaning steps provided below).
- You may only use grills for food purposes ONLY.
- No open containers (soft drinks, juices, etc.) are permitted anywhere around the grill.
- No more than two people are allowed to be within 25 feet of the grill.
- Additional guidelines may apply to barbecues depending on specific location.

GRILL SANITIZING STEPS:

Step One: After you've finished cooking and the coals have died out, brush the grill grate with a stiff wire brush. This regimen should keep the grate sanitary and ready to go.

Step Two: When the ashes are cold, remove them from the collector pan beneath the grill. Allowing ashes to collect in the bottom of the grill for days or weeks will impede air flow and can collect moisture, causing the grill to rust.

Step Three: Use a wire brush to brush away any flakes and/or baked-on grease or juices that have collected on the walls of the or bottom of your grill.

Step Four: If you really want to make your grill shine, remove the ashes and grill grates. Hose the grill out, and then scrub with warm, soapy water and a fine steel wool pad.

Step Five: You can also sanitize the grates and the exterior of the grill with warm, soapy water and fine steel wool.

RECOMMENDED GRILL CLEANING MATERIALS:

Rags, steel wool or wire grill brushes	Heavy-duty Scouring Pad	Rubber Gloves
Soap Kitchen Sponges	Spray-on Oven Cleaner
Old Newspapers	Liquid Dish Detergent

Bicycles/Motorcycles

Bicycle racks are available at each residential facility. Therefore, bicycles must be stored in authorized areas only and only in such numbers as the areas can accommodate. According to the State Fire code, stairways and hallways are fire exits and should not be blocked with bicycles or other personal items. Any bicycles found in such areas will be removed and a possible fee charged for their return. Motorcycles and similar vehicles are not permitted in the residence halls or University Village. Bicycles are not to be ridden in hallways, stairwells, or on decks. Bicycles should not be attached to railings or any device that obstructs access to sidewalks or entrances. Bicycles left unattended or in unsanctioned areas may be removed by Public Safety without warning. Confiscated bicycles may be retrieved at the Public Safety Office. All motorized vehicles require the purchase of a parking decal.

Cable Television/Internet

All residence halls receive the basic cable stations as a regular part of their room contract. Televisions, which are not "cable ready" will need a cable box, which can be rented from Comcast Communications at 1-800-COMCAST or (912) 354-7531. Residents must not tamper with any internet/cable wiring/fixtures, and must comply with all usage rules as outlined in any management documents.

Christmas Trees

Due to the flammable nature of live Christmas trees, such trees are not allowed in the residence halls, University Commons or University Village.

Collective Liability "Mass Billing"

Residents are responsible for the condition of their room and any shared spaces. The department works hard to attribute damage and vandalism charges to the individuals responsible, but when it cannot, all members of the apartment, suite, room, hall, or building may be charged equally for any charges. It's our hope that affected residents will provide information to housing staff to assign these charges to the individual responsible. There are no appeals of a collective liability charge.

Note: Collective liability will be at the discretion of the Residential Director.

Computer Access in the Residential Facilities

Wireless Access at SSU

Wireless access is available in ALL residential facilities at Savannah State University. If your computer does not have wireless capability, a wireless adaptor can be purchased from the University Bookstore that is compatible with the wireless protocol (contact the Office of Computers Services & Information Technology at 358-4357 for specifications).

- Laptop: If you use a laptop computer, all you need to connect to the wireless network is a wireless network adapter card that plugs directly into the laptop's port. Alternatively, you may choose a USB wireless Ethernet adaptor if your computer has USB ports. There are a number of laptop computers in the market with wireless cards built into the system.

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

- Desktop: The easiest way to connect a desktop computer to the wireless campus is through an installed in an available PCI slot inside your computer. An alternative method is a PCI wireless Ethernet adaptor that can be found at any electronics store.

Wired Access at SSU

Wired access or plug-in is available to residents in all Residential Facilities. In these areas your connection is made through a cable into a wall jack. You will need to purchase an Ethernet patch cable and a 10/100 Ethernet card for your laptop or desktop computer. Many computers are sold with an Ethernet port already built-in.

Computer Labs

The University Commons, University Village, Bowen Smith, Freshman Living and Community and Bostic are each equipped with a computer lab that is monitored by a surveillance system. The labs are for resident usage only. The labs are open according to posted hours. Please note the following while utilizing a computer lab within a residential facility:

- No food or drinks are allowed in the computer labs.
- The computers are for educational purposes only. Using the computers to view pornographic sites is strictly prohibited and displaying pornographic screen savers is prohibited.
- To protect the computer hard drives, saving files to the hard drive is prohibited; downloading software from the web to the hard drive is prohibited; and installing software via CDROM or 3.5 floppy to the hard drive is prohibited.
- Deleting programs already installed on the system is prohibited.
- Repairing and/or tampering with the computers are prohibited.
- A student needing to complete academic work takes precedence over a student using a computer to play on-line games, check e-mail, etc. if the issue arises.

Controlled Substances

Drugs and/or alcoholic beverages or any other controlled substances are not allowed on the campus of Savannah State University. The consumption of drugs and/or alcoholic beverages is strictly prohibited on campus. No full or empty alcoholic beverage containers may be stored on the premises or serve as decorations; nor may any items considered a weapon or drug paraphernalia serve as decorations. Violators will be subject to arrest, fines and/or eviction. (See Student Rights, Responsibilities and Ethics).

Conducting Business from a Resident's Room or Apartment

Residents are not permitted to operate businesses out of University Housing (i.e., hair salons, manicurists, barber shops, tattoo shops, book stores, candy stores and selling of any other items.)

Cooking/Food Preparation

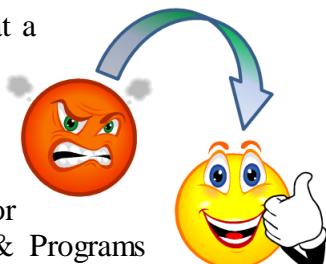

Traditional/Suite Style Residence Halls: A microwave is available in the designated kitchen areas in each building. Electrical or gas cooking appliances such as microwaves, grills, popcorn poppers, hot plates, toasters, electric frying pans are not permitted in rooms. When not properly used or monitored, microwaves have caused the activation of fire detection and alarm systems, therefore the microwave may be removed from the common area of the residential facilities at the RD's discretion. The University will confiscate any hazardous appliances and violators will be assessed a fine.

University Village/University Commons: Fire safety and sanitation requirements prohibit cooking in any area within University Village and University Commons except kitchenettes or kitchens, which are specifically designed for such use. Never leave a kitchen unattended while cooking. Microwaves or other cooking devices are not allowed in apartment unit bedrooms. Also, outdoor or indoor grills are not allowed within the facility.

All foods must be kept in tightly closed metal or plastic containers or refrigerator because of sanitation concerns.

Complaints

Most problems that arise in the residence halls can be solved in-hall. Residents who have concerns should take those problems to their RA/CA first. The RA/CA may decide that a Hall Director needs to be consulted. In situations where residents feel uncomfortable approaching their RA/CA, they may take their concerns directly to the Hall Directors. The resident should make an appointment with the appropriate Hall Director through the desk staff at the hall's front desk. Residents who are still dissatisfied after speaking with the Hall Director may then make an appointment with the Director for Residential Services & Programs at extension 3132.

Decorations/Attachments

While there is a chance for students to express individuality in decorating their rooms or apartments, all decorations must be removable without causing damage to surfaces (to include double sided and Scotch tape). Also, it is essential that residents observe good taste and common sense in decorating their rooms or apartments. No articles are to be displayed in the windows since the public views the facility from the outside. Decorations (posters, photographs, etc.) may not be affixed with any bonding agent that will mar or deface walls, doors, or woodwork. Residents will be charged for damage caused by any affixation of decorations, which marks, defaces, or mars the interior and exterior. Furthermore, residents should not install or attach any of the following items in their rooms: door locks, decals, wallpaper, borders, stickers or transfer pictures, outside antenna, additional electrical wiring, additional cable outlets, shades, blinds, awnings or window guards, or air-conditioning or heating units. Seasonal decorations must be of a fire retardant material. No full or empty alcoholic beverage containers may not be stored on the premises or serve as decorations; nor may any items considered a weapon or drug paraphernalia serve as decorations. Students will be charged for any damage they cause based on an assessment from the Residence Director.

NOTE: The interior walls of the Freshmen Living Learning Center, Tiger Pointe, Tiger Place, Tiger Court, Camilla Hall, University Village and University Commons are made of drywall. Absolutely NO articles and or/decorations are to be attached to the walls.

Destruction of Property

In attaching objects to interior and exterior doors, walls and ceilings, residents shall not use any device which leaves a permanent mark including, but not limited to, nails, screws, staples, thumbtacks, or stickers. A charge will be assessed for leaving an assigned room in such condition as to require undue time for cleaning the premises. Conditions which demand repairs, including painting, shall result in a damage assessment against the resident.

Disruptive / Disorderly Conduct

Disruptive / disorderly conduct includes any action that disrupts the peace. When students enter the university community, they take upon themselves certain responsibilities and obligations, including satisfactory academic performance and social behavior consistent with the lawful purpose of the University. Student conduct therefore is not considered in isolation within the University community, but as an integral part of the educational process.

Disruptive / disorderly conduct includes, but is not limited to assault, misconduct, threats to personal safety, fighting, throwing any object in the University dining facility or from the window of a University residential facility, making excessive noise, and any other type of disruption or conduct that interferes with the rights and opportunities of those who attend the University for the purposes for which the University exists. Additionally, speech or behavior that materially and substantially disrupts the University living environment will not be tolerated. Disciplinary action resulting from disruptive speech or behavior may include, but is not limited to temporary or permanent removal from University housing.

Driving and/or Parking on the Grass

Driving and/or parking on the grass at any of the residential facilities is ‘strictly forbidden’ at ALL times to include check-in and check-out periods! Violators will be subject to University policies as it relates to Traffic Regulations and/or will be subject to loss of on-campus driving privileges. The one exception to this is a designated parking lot that is on the grass, such as the one marked behind the FLLC.

Dress Code Policy

It is strongly suggested that appropriate attire/dress is worn at all times while residing in a residential facility and when out around the campus. It is required that all residents dress appropriately (i.e. shower coats, shower shoes, etc) when utilizing the bathrooms, computer labs, laundry rooms, etc. within any residential facility. Shirts and shoes are to be worn at all times.

As a caution, logos on hats and clothing, which promote drugs, violence, sex, etc., can promote unwarranted harassment and are discouraged. (Please refer to the University dress code policy)

Electrical Appliances/Equipment

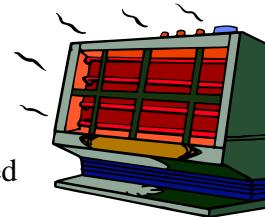

The residential facilities have limits on the capabilities of their electrical systems. Overloading these systems present fire and safety hazards. Furthermore, electrical heating elements are dangerous when used in residence hall rooms or apartment units. The following guidelines govern the use of electrical appliances, outlets and extension cords in residence hall rooms or apartment units:

1. Any electrical appliance with an exposed heating element is prohibited.
2. Extension cords may be used under the following conditions:
 - a. Only one extension cord is permitted to connect an appliance with an electrical outlet (cords may not be used in a series).
 - b. Only grounded extension cords may be used with appliances.
 - c. Multiple-outlet extension cords with built-in breakers are required when the number of outlets needed is greater than the number of outlets in the student's room.

3. Privately owned air-conditioners are not permitted.
4. Resident owned refrigerators are allowed in residence hall rooms provided that they do not exceed 3.6 cubic feet in size.
5. Other appliances such as radios, lamps, computers, TVs, electric razors, hair dryers, hair curlers, fans and clocks are permitted provided the total electrical requirements do not exceed the capability of the system.
6. All electrical equipment and cords must be kept in safe operating condition.
7. Irons may be used only with ironing boards.

Residence hall, University Village and University Commons staff will insure total compliance with these safety policies and are to direct any necessary adjustments in use of appliances and/or outlets.

No student shall alter or repair electrical equipment or fixtures within any residential facility. Defects in any electrical equipment that belongs to the residential facility should be reported to the staff immediately.

Elevators

Tampering with, misuse of, or vandalizing of elevators is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to forcing doors open, unnecessary use of alarms/emergency phones, accessing elevator controls or control room, entering elevator shaft or exterior of an elevator.

All residents of the building may be charged for any damage if the responsible party is not found. Elevator service may be temporarily or permanently discontinued if elevators are repetitively abused.

Emergency Exits

Emergency exit doors are located in each residence hall, which lead directly to the outside of the building. These doors are to be used in emergency situations only. An alarm will sound whenever they are opened. Using or propping open of these doors will result in fines (see Residential Living Fine Policy).

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

Exhibitionism

Indecent exposure, lewd, or sexual acts which take place in general-use residence hall areas (within and outside of the buildings) or in residential rooms (in front of roommates, guests, or other hall residents) are strictly prohibited. Such violations can result in immediate removal from the University housing system, as well as automatic referral to the Office of Student Ethics.

Fighting

Fighting and the threat of physical abuse is not allowed or tolerated in the residential facilities. (See Student Rights, Responsibilities and Ethics).

Fire Doors

It is absolutely essential (and required by law) that corridor and stairwell fire doors be kept closed at all times. Closed doors retard the travel of smoke, heat, toxic gases, and fire from the area of origin.

Fire Equipment Regulations

Because it is imperative that fire and safety equipment functions properly when it is needed, the following acts are prohibited:

1. Tampering or playing with fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, exit lights, or emergency lights.
2. Tampering with or pulling a fire alarm under false pretense.
3. Removing smoke detector batteries or otherwise rendering a smoke detector inoperative.
4. Propping open stairwell fire doors.
5. Obstructing halls and stairwells with furniture, debris and/or other items.

Residents who jeopardize the security or safety of any resident will be subject to severe disciplinary action. Tampering with fire equipment or acts of arson can result in civil prosecution, disciplinary measures, and/or possible fines.

Firearms, Weapons & Explosives

All firearms, instruments classified as weapons, explosives, firecrackers, bottle rockets, smoke bombs, ammunition and related paraphernalia are strictly prohibited in and around the residential facilities. This includes, but is not limited to, BB guns, pellet guns, air guns, stun guns, water guns, water balloons, box cutters and any other type of weapon. All firearms must remain inside of your vehicle per Georgia law. Per Georgia law O.C.G.A. § 16-11-127.1 (2011) (See Student Rights, Responsibilities and Ethics.)

NOTE: Water guns, water balloons and Halloween masks (or anything that covers the face or alters a person identity) are strictly prohibited on campus.

Entrances/Hallways/Walks/Grounds

Entrances, hallways, walks, lawns and other public areas shall not be obstructed, used for bicycles, motorcycles and other vehicles, or any purpose other than ingress and egress.

Fixtures

Residents shall not display any signs, exterior lights, or markings. No awning or other projection shall be attached to the outside of buildings. No satellite dish or other receiving equipment may be attached to the balcony or building exterior.

Fountains

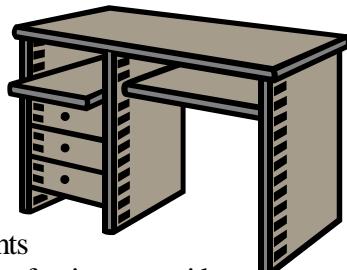

The fountains are located on the property for aesthetic purposes. Bubbles or soap of any kind, gelatin, vehicles, dye, trash, or people is not allowed in the fountains at any time. Violations will result in disciplinary action.

Furniture

Student rooms, lounges, reception lobbies, and public spaces in each residence hall or apartment units are equipped with furniture for the comfort and convenience of residents; therefore, furniture is not to be removed from a room or apartment to another, or from one building to another or from one unit within the building to another without prior consent from the Office of Residential Services & Programs. Furniture unaccounted for at year-end inventory will be replaced at the expense of the residents. All residents found removing furniture from designated areas will be fined. (See: Residential Living Fine Policy)

Residents may rearrange individual room furniture in the residence hall or apartment unit when it is not attached. In residence halls where the furniture is attached to walls or floors, the residents must leave it in place.

All room furniture must remain inside the room or apartment unit. Residents may not store any room furniture on or off campus nor may residents take furniture outside of their residential facility to use for any outside purposes.

Furniture or decorative materials must not obscure doorways, corridors, stairways, or other passageways and must not obscure exit signs or obstruct access to fire protection equipment or building service equipment. Objects should not be placed in the unit as they may interfere with airflow, cause safety hazards and/or block access by maintenance personnel.

Gambling

Gambling is prohibited within any residential facilities or on University grounds.

Guns On-Campus Policy Amendment for Savannah State University (Approved 7 July 2010)

Carrying a weapon OTHER THAN A VALIDLY LICENSED FIREARM onto or within 1000 ft. of property owned, controlled , or leased by the University is strictly prohibited. ON CAMPUS, A

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

VALIDLY LICENSED (INCLUDING A CONCEAL CARRY PERMIT) FIREARM MAY ONLY BE LAWFULLY POSSESSED AND KEPT IN A PARKED VEHICLE OR IN SUCH VEHICLE WHEN TRANSITING CAMPUS (see GA SB 308). ALL OTHER FIREARM POSSESSION ON CAMPUS REMAINS PROHIBITED.

Harassment of Staff

Harassment of the University staff, whether physical or verbal, will not be tolerated. Individuals found to be in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action and may be evicted from the residence halls. In addition, a recommendation of expulsion may be made to the Vice President of Student Affairs. All residents and their guests are expected to abide by the requests of the University staff.

Hazing

Hazing as defined by Georgia law and the Student Rights, Responsibilities and Ethics is strictly prohibited.

Heating/Cooling Units

Individual air conditioners and/or heaters are not permitted in the residence halls at any time. Resident halls have air conditioners; residents may bring small fans for use in their rooms.

Housekeeping

Residents are responsible for cleaning their own room, common area or apartment area. All common areas in Traditional/Suite Style halls are cleaned on a regular basis by housekeeping staff.

Incident Reports

Incidents requiring the attention or intervention of residence hall staff members are regularly reported to Campus Police and the Office of Student Ethics. Violations of university policies, medical and emergency situations, and instances of property loss or damage are documented on Incident Report forms and forwarded to Campus Police and the Office of Student Ethics for appropriate follow-up and/or referral. All correspondence will come through your Savannah State issued email address.

(Ex. jdoe@student.savannahstate.edu)

Illegal Entry

Failure to enter a residential facility at the front entrance is prohibited. Violators and accessories to the act could be charged with criminal trespassing. Residents who do not escort their guest(s) or who prop open doors or windows are subject to a cancellation of their housing contract or lease agreement. Non-residents who are not escorted by a resident are subject to the charge of criminal trespassing.

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

Note: All violators will be subject to disciplinary action up to eviction from all housing facilities.

Laundry Facilities

All resident students pay an amount each semester for unlimited laundry. Washing machines and dryers are located in the residence halls, University Commons, and University Village for use by resident students. Please do not allow non-residents access into the laundry facilities. This could be a factor in increasing the cost to students for the laundry service and can also present security problems. Students must assist with maintaining the cleanliness of the laundry rooms and the machines; students abusing laundry machines or facilities are subjected to disciplinary action. Students are responsible for their own clothes in the laundry room. We recommend that you check each washer and dryer before using and stay with your laundry until it is finished. Residents are provided with a laundry facility for the drying of clothes. Other public displays of laundry including hanging items out of windows, and from sprinklers are not permitted. If there is a problem with the machines, please follow the posted instructions, or notify your RA/CA or RD.

In order to maintain a safe and clean laundry facility for all residents, please follow these rules:

- Do Not sit in and/or on washers and dryers.
- Do Not slam doors on the washers or dryers.
- Do Not overload the washers or dryers.
- Do Not leave clothes or any personal items unattended.
- Hair combing and/or braiding is prohibited in the laundry facility.
- Do Not re-arrange or remove any furniture from the laundry facility.
- Vandalism will not be tolerated. Residents will be charged for any damage to the laundry equipment.
- Do Not put dye in washers and dryers.
- Note: Laundry rooms are subject to posted hours.

Loitering

Loitering in and/or around the residential facilities is not permitted including parking lots. Non-residents and students assigned to a respective residential facility must adhere to this policy.

Lobby Areas

Residential facilities lobby areas in all residence halls open at 8:00 a.m. each morning and closes at 11:00pm Sunday thru Thursday and 12 midnight on Friday and Saturday nights. The lobby (lounge areas) is a place provided for residents to watch television and converse with fellow students.

Lobby areas must be kept clean and are the responsibility of the residents of the building.

The lobby areas in the Bostic, Camilla Hubert, Bowen-Smith and Tiger Pointe, Tiger Place and Tiger Court Halls and the Freshmen LLC are closed to guests until visitation hours start (See: Visitation Policy).

Locks and Keys

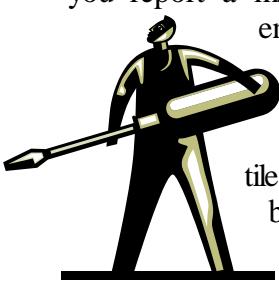

A room key shall be issued to each resident. The key shall remain University property loaned to the student only so long as the student may rightfully occupy the residential facility room to which said key provides access. The resident shall not deliver, surrender, or otherwise relinquish possession of the room key to any unauthorized individual or permit the key to be duplicated or modified. Unauthorized possession, duplication, or modification of said key may be grounds for formal prosecution. The student shall deliver possession of key to an authorized University official immediately upon termination of the student's right to occupy the room to which said key provides access or otherwise immediately upon demand of such official. Violation of any provision in this paragraph may be grounds for declaring the student in breach of the contract or other action by the University. Loss of the room key will result in a core change for which the student will be required to pay the current fee. Residents may not place any items or devices that may prohibit university officials or staff from entering rooms. Also, residents are prohibited from modifying the locks and adding additional hardware.

Note: Only University locks are allowed on residential living doors. Residents are expected to carry their room/apartment key with them at all times. If you lose a key then your locks will automatically be changed after a work order is submitted.

Maintenance

General building and equipment repair needs should be reported to the front desk in your residence hall. Report all maintenance problems and repairs to the RD or CA/RA as soon as possible. When you report a maintenance concern, you are giving the maintenance or custodial staff permission to enter your room or apartment to make the repair. An on-site maintenance staff cares for common areas of the complex. Most maintenance requests are performed at no cost to the resident. The following problems should be reported immediately:

uncharged fire extinguisher, non-functioning smoke detector, pipe leaks, broken tile or cracked grout, ceiling or wall leaks, and appliance malfunction. Residents will be billed as a result of Resident's failure to comply with this procedure.

Garbage Disposals: A garbage disposal is a machine that grinds food waste and allows it to be washed down the drain. The following are directions on how to use a garbage disposal and keep you safe:

How to use a garbage disposal:

Food to be disposed of should be placed in the disposal while the disposal is OFF

Turn on the cold water

Turn on the garbage disposal-switch is located on the wall beside the sink

Let the food clear the disposal-you can hear when it is clear

Turn OFF the disposal. Let the water run 15-30 seconds more to flush the pipe

Turn the water off

Improper use of the garbage disposal can be dangerous.

Electric Stoves: Used to heat up food on a flat surface and can be dangerous unless used properly. If there is ever a problem with the stove or any other kitchen appliance, turn it OFF and put in a maintenance request. Do not use it again until you have written or verbal communication from the maintenance staff that it is okay to use again.

Here are some guidelines to follow to keep safe:

Do not heat unopened food containers on burner

Do not leave your stove unattended while cooking

Mental Health Disturbances Disposition

The Office of Residential Services & Programs is gravely concerned with any situation wherein a student's state of psychological imbalance or poor mental health leads to either acute risk or actual disruption of the living and learning environment of the residential facilities or creates undue and continuing stress or danger for either that student and/or members of the residential living community. Examples of such situations are suicide attempts; grossly distorted behavior caused by drug ingestion, or demonstrated episodes of acute anxiety or other types of mentally aberrant behavior. Should a student's behavior be assessed by appropriate University staff to have caused disruption of the student's living environment, or to pose imminent possibility of such disruption, disposition of that case will be considered on its own merits. Possible disposition may include, but is not limited to any or all combinations of the following requirements: referral for professional mental health evaluation, remediation, therapy, imposition of sanctions or limits designed to protect the individual or the residential community, involuntary medical withdrawal from the University (including University housing) for either a specified or unspecified period of time, or involuntary withdrawal from the University (including University housing) for either a specified or unspecified period of time. Final disposition of the matter will be determined by the Vice President for Student Affairs, in consultation with the appropriate counselors or other mental health professionals.

Noise Producing Devices

All radios, televisions, stereo equipment or any other appliances or items which generate noise or sound, shall be turned down to a level that does not annoy or interfere with the quiet enjoyment of the other Residents. No percussive or electronically amplified musical instruments may be played within any residential facilities. Non-electronically amplified acoustic instruments may be played at a level that does not annoy or interfere with the quiet enjoyment of the other residents. Students who violate these policies could be subject to fines and/or removal of the device(s) from the student(s) room.

Open Flame Burning

Odor-producing paraphernalia requiring the use of open flames (such as candles and incense) are fire safety hazards and are prohibited. Heated elements that could be left unattended for long periods of time (such as simmering potpourris, lava lamps or scented light bulb rings) and which require heat are also prohibited. Decorative or unlit candles, candles used for religious worship and incense burners are prohibited.

Painting Student Rooms

Because all rooms throughout the residence hall system are being systematically painted, individual painting of rooms is not allowed. Students will be assessed a fine for painting all or any part of the room.

Pest Control

Each residential facility will be treated on a regular basis by a professional exterminator. Students experiencing pest problems should contact the appropriate staff immediately. It is important to note that cleaning and keeping your windows closed will go a long way towards keeping your room pest-free. All rooms will be sprayed periodically by the University personnel for pest control. Residents must notify the University if a medical problem exists that prohibits normal spraying. In such cases, special spraying will be arranged.

Pregnancy Policy:

For health and safety reasons, a student who is pregnant should notify the Director of Student Development at (912) 358-3129, of her condition as soon as the pregnancy is confirmed. We do not provide prenatal services at our Health Center to students who are pregnant and we strongly encourage you to visit a health care provider regularly during your pregnancy. Mothers-to-be who see a health care provider regularly during pregnancy have healthier babies, are less likely to deliver prematurely, and are less likely to have other serious problems related to pregnancy.

Information is available to all pregnant students from our Counseling/Health Offices (912) 358-3129/ (912) 358-4122; about various services that are available in our community. Confidential counseling is also available by appointment and walk- ins if you have any challenges or concerns related to being pregnant on campus.

Pets/Animals

Due to health standards and the possible inconvenience to other residents, no pets are to be housed or kept in residential facilities, with the exception of a fish aquarium not exceeding 10 gallons. Fish aquariums may only be used for fish and small turtles. This means that no other species may reside in your room. Trained service animals for the disabled are permitted with appropriate documentation. See subsection entitled Service Animals under Services for Students with Disabilities. Residents found in violation of this policy will be assessed a fine and/or removed from University housing. Pets will be removed and sent to the nearest animal shelter.

Posting and Distribution of Materials

All materials circulated or posted in the residential facilities must be stamped approved by the Office of Student Programs & Organizations. Posting pornographic materials is prohibited in all residents rooms/and or apartments. The Residential Living Staff will remove posted materials that have not been approved for posting. See residential hall staff for approved posting areas in each respective residential facility.

Profanity/Obscenity

The use of rude, vulgar, indecent or obscene verbal, gestures or written expressions, while protected by the First Amendment, is considered detrimental to the community residence hall environment and is certainly not condoned. The posting of materials in public areas must be approved by the Office of Student Programs & Organizations. The Office of Student Programs & Organizations reserves the right to refuse any postings, which contain rude, vulgar, indecent, or obscene expressions. Hallways and bathrooms are considered public areas and are subject to the same restrictions as other public postings.

Property/Renter's Insurance

Savannah State University does not carry insurance on student's belongings, and is not responsible for damage to or theft of any personal property. The Office of Residential Services and Programs strongly encourages students to either (1) make arrangements with their parents or guardians homeowners insurance company to insure coverage for personal belongings, or (2) purchase separate renters insurance. For more information or further clarification, contact the Office of Residential Services and Programs at (912) 358-3132 or your respective Residential Director.

Quiet Hours and Courtesy Hours

The creation of an environment conducive to study in the residential facilities requires that each resident show consideration of others by keeping his or her noise level down. Especially between the hours of 11:00 P.M. through 8:00 A.M., Sunday through Thursday, and Midnight through 8:00 A.M., Friday and Saturday, residents are expected to maintain a noise level, which cannot be heard outside of their room or apartment. At all other times, Courtesy Hours are in effect and the noise level should not disturb fellow residents. In addition, if you are ever asked to turn down your music by a resident or staff member, you should do so immediately. At no time will excessive noise be tolerated within the residential facilities.

Quiet Hours:	Sunday – Thursday	11 p.m. to 8 a.m.
	Friday – Saturday	Midnight to 8 a.m.
	Final Exam Periods	24 Hours

Courtesy Hours: In effect 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Recreational or Sporting Games

No recreational or sporting games in any form are permitted in the buildings, breezeways, balconies or parking lots of any residential facility.

Restricted Access/Restricted Areas

Unauthorized entry to restricted areas such as building mechanical rooms and custodial closets is prohibited, as is venturing onto roofs or breezeways. Entering the building through windows or other surreptitious entry is prohibited. Emergency exits are for emergency use only.

Resident Harassment Policy

Individuals are afforded the right to privacy and a peaceful existence. Harassment or assault on another individual will not be tolerated. Assaults or threats of assaults on other persons whether sexual, physical, written, or oral will not be tolerated. Abusive language or harassment toward any University staff member or student will not be tolerated. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the Student Rights, Responsibilities and Ethics.

Room Cleanliness

Roommates are expected to appropriately clean and maintain the units, including but not limited to bathrooms, kitchens, and bedrooms. Lack of cleaning can result in unhealthy living conditions, odor, mildew, mold, pests, etc. Residents are expected to clean regularly and comply with all requests made to maintain a healthy environment. Failure to clean can result in fines and judicial action.

Room Entry

The university reserves the right of entry into resident's rooms for purposes of inspection, improvements, or repairs to control the room in the event of an epidemic or emergency, or for any purpose in accordance with the University policy.

Room Inspections, Searches & Seizures

Students enjoy the rights of any citizen and therefore will not be subject to unreasonable searches and seizures. The courts, however, have recognized the right of the University to conduct reasonable inspections in order to enforce University regulations. Savannah State University reserves the right to conduct such inspections, searches and seizures within limits of the law.

INSPECTIONS

- (1) The University reserves the right to inspect rooms for possible violations of University Regulations. The University reserves the right to enter rooms or other facilities at reasonable hours.

SEARCH

- (1) The University reserves the right to conduct searches of individual rooms and lockers in a residence hall or other facility on the campus if there is an emergency situation.
- (2) Law enforcement officials may search facilities with or without authorization from the University by means of a search warrant.

SEIZURE

- (1) Property confiscated during a search will be returned to the owner unless it is an illegal item such as drugs or drug paraphernalia.

ROOM SEARCH PROCEDURE/GUIDELINES

- (1) In non-emergency situations if consent to search a room is not granted by the student, the Campus Police will request a search warrant. If a warrant is granted by judicial order, the Campus Police will search the room. A report will be filed with the Office of Student Ethics. If the search produces evidence that constitutes a felony, the student will be arrested.

Running/Roughhousing

In order to prevent damage or injury, running, speed walking, jogging, rollerblading, skateboarding, skating, roughhousing, scuffling, using water guns, water balloons and the throwing, bouncing, or kicking of objects in halls, stairwells, and other common areas is prohibited. This list is by no means exhaustive.

Smoke Detectors

All student rooms are equipped with smoke detectors. Periodically throughout each semester, every detector is thoroughly checked. Each month during the fall and spring semesters RA/CAs check each detector and visually scan the room for other fire hazards (i.e. overloaded circuits, etc.). If the resident suspects a problem with his/her smoke detector, s/he should contact the front desk or an RA/CA immediately.

Disciplinary action will result if a student renders the detector inoperative. Disciplinary action may also be taken for residents who cause potential fire hazards through unsafe practices (i.e. overloading circuits, using inappropriate extension cords, using unauthorized cooking appliances, etc.). Residents must understand that everyone's safety is jeopardized when this occurs. (See: Residential Living Fine Sheet)

Soliciting

For your protection, residents and non-residents are prohibited from soliciting in the residential facilities without permission from the University. The RD should be notified if a solicitor is seen in the building. Permission for any soliciting must be obtained through the Vice President for Student Affairs.

The following forms of solicitation, when approved by the Student Affairs Office, are permitted:

1. Fund raising activities by an organization related to the University.
2. Distribution of information in public areas.

Special Usage of Common Areas

Common areas in the residence halls and the University Village are designated for the use of the residents. Residents may reserve areas (if approved) in their residence hall, University Village through their RD. No outside groups are allowed to reserve a residence hall, University Village common area without approval from the Office of Residential Services & Programs.

Smoking

Smoking is not allowed within any facility at Savannah State University. Smoking is strictly prohibited within a resident's rooms at any time and within forty (40) feet of the entrance of any residential facility. Violators will be subject to fines and/or eviction.

Staff Meetings with Residents

All Residential Facilities: At least monthly, you will have apartment unit, hall and/or floor meetings. During these meetings, Residential Living Staff and/or University administrative staff will provide important information to all residents. If you fail to attend a mandatory meeting, without providing your RD, RA or CA with a valid written excuse and/or advance notification, you will be assessed a fine of $15.

NOTE: Advanced notification of such meetings will be posted three-working days in advance of the meeting by the RD, RA or CA unless an EMERGENCY MEETING must be called without prior notification.

Stairwells/Balconies

The dropping of objects and trash down stairwells or balconies is not allowed. Persons involved in such actions will be subject to eviction from the residential facility. Sitting, standing on, climbing, or hanging from a balcony, ledge, railing, or roof is prohibited. Clothing, bikes, banners, or signs should not be hung or displayed from balconies, railings, roofs, and/or windows. (See: Student Residential Living Fine Sheet)

Storage

The University does not have adequate and secure space to store your personal items. Local storage facilities that rent by the month are available near campus. You can locate these facilities in the yellow pages.

Trash Removal

Students are responsible for removing his/her trash from their residence hall room or apartment unit and placing it in a dumpster outside of the facility.

Students will be charged a fine for not properly removing their trash.

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

Theft

All accusations of theft are treated seriously and are subject to investigation. If any student is found guilty of theft, they are subject to prosecution, restitution, and eviction from the residential facilities. Theft could also lead to suspension from the University. Renter's Insurance will be located in the check in package or found in Residential Services and Programs. Savannah State University is not responsible for stolen items. (See Student Rights, Responsibilities and Ethics.)

University Liability

Although security precautions are taken, the University assumes no responsibility, liability or legal obligation to pay for injury or the loss or damage of personal property, which occurs in its buildings or on its grounds. This includes damage, loss, fire, water damage, theft, flooding, etc. Students or their parents are strongly encouraged to carry appropriate insurance to cover potential loss. See your RD or contact the Office of Residential Services & Programs for renter's insurance information.

Vehicle Maintenance and Cleaning

Residents are not allowed to perform car maintenance in University housing parking area or access water from their residence hall rooms or apartments for the purpose of washing vehicles. The only exception of car maintenance in University housing would be if the resident's car has a dead battery or flat tire.

Visitation Policy

Visitation Policy for all Traditional/Suite Style residential facilities:

The In-Room Visitation Program for the Traditional/Suite Style residence halls (Bostic, Camilla Hubert, Bowen-Smith & Tiger Pointe, Tiger Place and Tiger Court, and the Freshman Living & Learning Center) will allow for opposite sex, in-room visitation from Sunday through Thursday starting at 12:00pm to 11:00pm (all visitors must be signed out before 11:00pm), and on Fridays and Saturdays starting at 12:00pm to 12:00am (all visitors must be signed out before 12:00am). Failure to sign out before the required times will result in fines! Students being sanctioned for disciplinary violations by the judicial committee shall not have guest or be a guest of any resident.

Processes for Visitation:

1. Students are required to present their valid Savannah State University Student Identification/Meal Card at the front desk of the residence hall prior to visiting a resident. Non-SSU students must leave a valid driver's license and/or picture identification. (We strongly recommend that the guest call the student he or she wishes to visit in advance.) The guest must log-in the resident he or she is visiting and leave his or her identification card with the front desk attendant. Additionally, the resident who is entertaining the guest must leave his or her identification card at the front desk. The guest must be escorted by the resident at all times. Upon leaving the building, the guest must log-out and retrieve his or her identification card, and the resident may secure his or her identification card at the same time.

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

2. Each resident may only entertain one guest at a time in his or her room. Guests are permitted to visit only the room and resident that he or she had been authorized to visit. Visiting in other rooms will require the guest to repeat the steps outlined in item two. That is, he or she must return to the front desk, log-in the name of the person he or she wishes to visit, and be escorted by the resident who must also leave his or identification card.
3. Each resident must escort his or her guest to the restroom designated for members of the opposite sex (located in lobby areas). Restrooms on the halls are not to be used by visitors of the opposite sex. Students who violate this provision will lose their visitation privileges immediately and could receive additional sanctions through the Office of Student Ethics.

Visitation Policy for all Apartment-Style residential facilities:

The In-Room Visitation Program for the Apartment-Style residence facilities (University Village and University Commons) will allow for opposite sex, in-room visitation from Sunday through Thursday starting at 12:00pm to 11:30pm and on Fridays and Saturdays starting at 12:00pm to 12:00am. Failure to abide by the visitation policy will result in fines! Students being sanctioned for disciplinary violations by the judicial committee shall not have guest or be a guest of any resident.

Please Note: Non-students caught entering in any residential facility after the above mentioned visitation hours will be charged with Criminal Trespass.

Processes for Visitation:

1. Each resident may only entertain two guests at a time in his or her room. Guests are permitted to visit only the room and resident that he or she had been authorized to visit.
2. Each student is responsible for his or her guest while in on the premises. Students who violate this provision will lose their visitation privileges immediately and could receive additional sanctions through the Office of Student Ethics.

During the mid-term and final examination periods, visitation will be restricted to the lobby areas only.

Violations of Policy

Students who violate the in-room visitation policy will be subjected to disciplinary action. A guest who stays beyond the visitation hours will be fined $100 for the first offense and the second offense will result in a $200 fine and loss of visitation privileges for the remainder of the semester. Resident(s) who fail to escort or properly checkout his or her guest will be fined $100 for the first violation and the second violation will result in a $200 fine and loss of visitation privileges. In cases where a guest is wandering through the hall, the individual will lose his or her visitation privileges immediately and the resident who signed the individual into the residence hall will be fined $200 and will lose visitation privileges immediately!

In cases where the guest is not a Savannah State University student, a violation of any provision of the policy will result in a “one strike you are out” rule. That is, once any provision of the policy and/or University rule or regulation is violated, the individual is banned from future visitation in "any and all" residence halls including University Village and University Commons. Should the individual be found in a residence hall, University Village or University Commons, he or she could be charged with criminal trespassing. The resident who receives such an individual is subject to the above-mentioned sanctions. Students alleged to have violated the in-room visitation program will be adjudicated through the Coordinator for Student Ethics as prescribed in the most current Student Handbook.

Finally, if the Director of the Office of Residential Programs & Services determines that if at any point during the semester the program is making poor progress in achieving its goal or that the presence of individuals from the opposite sex works against the well-being and/or safety of resident students, the in-room visitation program will cease immediately.

It is understood that Residents may have visitors or guests from time to time, but the Resident expressly understands that occupancy of the Premises is limited to Resident only and that guests must adhere to the rules and regulations and respect the rights of roommates. Members of the opposite sex may visit only during coed visitation hours.

Any person, of the same sex, occupying or otherwise staying in Resident's room or suite as a guest for more than two (2) consecutive days shall be deemed a guest only if the prior written consent to such occupancy or stay is secured from the RD, except that, under no circumstances, may such person's stay in the room exceed four (4) days. In recognition that the Premises are primarily for Resident's occupancy relative to Resident's enrollment at University for educational purposes, Residents may not request permission for a guest to stay in Resident's room beyond two (2) consecutive days any more than four (4) times during the Lease Term. Resident's failure to observe the above requirements shall constitute a default by the Resident and entitle University Village/University Commons to exercise its rights and remedies hereunder.

Vending Machines

Vending machines are located in most residence facilities and elsewhere throughout the campus. If you lose money in a machine, please contact Auxiliary Services at Room 127 King-Frazier Complex (358-3109), stating the location and type of machine, what type of problem occurred, and how much money was lost. Do not shake the vending machines, since this can be dangerous. Persons vandalizing vending machines will be subject to a fine and disciplinary action. If one person cannot be identified, all students in the residence facility will be subject to a fine.

Verbal Abuse and Gestures

Sometimes staff members must speak to residents and their guests to remind them of various policies and procedures and to document policy violations. Unfortunately, some residents respond inappropriately to staff members by being argumentative, shouting, or making rude, vulgar, indecent or obscene comments and/or gestures toward the staff member. Such disrespectful behavior is considered verbal abuse, or "Staff Abuse." The incident will be automatically referred to the Residential Judicial Board or the Office of Student Ethics regardless of how minor the initial policy violation. Any student who feels that s/he has been treated with disrespect by a staff member should address the matter appropriately by making an appointment with the Director for Residential Services & Programs to discuss the matter the following day.

Visitors of the Same Sex

Overnight visitors are discouraged during weekday nights and prohibited during the last week of each semester when final examinations are being given. The maximum length of any visit is two consecutive nights; with extensions granted only by the RD. Guest must check-in with the RD upon arrival and checkout with the RD at departure.

SPECIAL NOTE: All visitors are governed by the University and the Residential Living Policy & Procedures Handbook while visiting. Residents are responsible for their guests. If a non-resident does not comply with the request to leave, the Department of Public Safety will be called to remove the individual. Non-registered individuals found in the residence halls, University Village or University Commons will be subject to charges of trespassing. Residents who do not adhere to visitation policies will be subject to disciplinary actions (See: Student Rights, Responsibilities and Ethics).

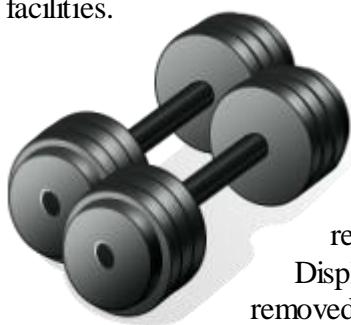

Weather Conditions and Reports

During severe weather watches and warnings, residents should be prepared to take proper precautions. Windows should be closed during thunderstorms and battery operated lights should be kept close at hand in case of a power failure. Residents must be prepared to evacuate to the safe areas of their buildings when hurricanes and tornadoes are likely.

On rare occasions, the University will evacuate and close the campus in preparation for hurricanes. All residence halls will close at this point. Students may learn of the open/closed status by consulting the Office of Residential Services & Programs, Student Affairs, local television and radio stations, campus email and internet or phoning the SSU Campus Police at 358-3004.

Weights

The University does not permit weight equipment (commercial or handmade) within the residential facilities.

Windows and Screens

Students are not allowed to hold conversations or conduct any transactions from their room windows or from any window within a residence hall, including University Village and University Commons.

Displays in windows, which are deemed inappropriate by the staff, must be removed by the resident. The throwing of objects from any window in the residence facility is not allowed. Students may not remove the screens from their window at any time. Residents may not take any action that may cause damage to the window or screen. If in need of repair, the resident should report maintenance concerns to their respective RA/CA. In order to protect those individuals who may be walking outside the residence hall or apartments, no objects of any type may be thrown, dropped, pushed out of, placed outside of, or allowed to fall from any residential facility.

Students who violate these policies could be subject to fines and/or disciplinary action.

Roommates & Apartment Mate(s)

Residential Living

A college education incorporates many aspects, both inside and outside of the classroom. You learn to exercise your freedom, yet accept the consequences of your choices. In a student community, you learn to be independent, yet be responsible to those with whom you live. Along with liberty, residential living consists of guidelines and policies developed by students and staff to ensure a pleasant living/learning environment. Living and learning within the student residential environment means thinking of others, mutually respecting each individual's personal rights, confronting inappropriate behaviors, and accepting different types of people and their viewpoints.

All about Roommates & Apartment Mate(s)

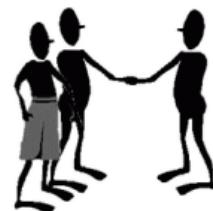

An important realization during your stay on-campus is that you do not just have a roommate or apartment mate(s); you are a roommate or apartment mate. For many residents, sharing a room or apartment unit is a new experience. Your roommate or apartment mate(s) can be someone to share opinions, interests, and good times. However, sharing a room or apartment can sometimes result in a few problems or misunderstandings. Individuals who usually get along well have spent time working at it. Below are four tenets to fostering a positive roommate or apartment mate(s) experience.

1. Visitors

It is important for you and your roommate or apartment mate(s) to agree on how to deal with visitors. You should come to terms about visitors at the beginning of the semester before it becomes an issue! Find out when you both want to avoid having guests in the room or apartment. Figure out how to let each other know if someone has overstayed his/her welcome. And most of all make sure you know how each other feels about people in the room or apartment unit when one person is studying.

2. Communicate

If conflicts do arise, talk with your roommate or apartment mate(s) first before it gets out of hand. If communication does not work and the problem cannot be resolved, then talk with your RA or CA. The Residential Living staff is experienced in dealing with these problems and can give you some advice. Remember that you owe your roommate or apartment mate(s) the courtesy of speaking with him/her first.

You should also sit down and discuss habits, preferences, moods, and values. Even if you'll be rooming or sharing an apartment with your best friend, you may be surprised to discover his/her preferences regarding personal items, stereo volume, phone messages, or borrowing stamps and clothes differs from yours.

3. Establish Rules

Develop a basic set of ground rules regarding the use of the room or apartment unit, going to bed, getting up, using each other's belongings, room and/or bathroom cleaning, entertaining guests, and all-night studying, just to name a few. Remember, this is a joint effort and requires some compromising and flexibility from both people.

4. Respect Privacy

Sharing ideas and discussing situations are an integral part of life in the residence hall or University Village, but be aware that excessive interruptions can sometimes result in irritations and frustrations. Give your roommate space when he/she needs it.

5. Understanding

Everyone has those days when everything seems to go wrong and bad moods are result. Try to be understanding and help one another through the hard times. Making it through the rough days builds stronger friendships.

The “Roommate and Apartment Mate(s) Bill of Rights”

Each student choosing to live on-campus has the right to...

- Sleep during the night undisturbed by your roommates or their guest(s).
- Read and study free from undue interference in your room.
- Free access to your room or apartment without pressure from your roommates.
- Be free from fear of intimidation, physical and/or emotional harm.
- Expect that roommates or apartment mate(s) will respect your personal belongings.
- Host guest when they will not disturb your roommate's or apartment(s)' opportunity to sleep or study.
- Expect reasonable cooperation in the use of residence hall or apartment facilities and a commitment to honor agreed upon procedures.
- Redress of grievances when they arise.

Residence Hall Judicial Procedures

When an apparent violation of Savannah State University Code of Student Ethics or standards of the Residential Living Handbook occurs, an incident report is filed. Violations that would warrant minor fines are forwarded to the Hall Director for review and adjudication by the Student Government Association Judicial Board. The SGA Judicial Board is empowered to hear Level III cases of misconduct. Violations that may warrant more severe sanctions are forwarded to the Office of Student Ethics, for adjudication by the Coordinator of Student Ethics or his designee.

Joint Responsibility for Violations:

- a. Students are subject to disciplinary action for knowingly acting in concert with others to violate University regulations.
- b. Students are subject to disciplinary action for being aware of the existence of a violation of University regulations and failing to take reasonable action to report the violation in a timely manner.
- c. Students are responsible for violations of University regulations that occur in on-campus residential facility rooms and are to report such violations in a timely manner.

Rights of Students Accused of Violating the Code of Student Conduct or Standards of the Residential Living Handbook

1. Students alleged to have violated the Code of Student Ethics have the Following due process rights.
2. The right to a non-legal advisor of their choice. (An attorney may be present only when it appears that the hearing also relates to a potential, or actual, criminal charge against the accused. In such an instance, the university may exercise the option to arrange for the attendance of the university's legal counsel at any or all judicial proceedings.)
3. The right to testify on his or her own behalf.
4. The right to question the accuser(s).
5. The right to present evidence.
6. The right to call witnesses and to hear and question adverse witnesses.
7. The right to remain Silent and have no inference of guilt drawn from such silence.
8. The right of cross-examination.
9. The right to appeal an adverse decision through the judicial appeals procedures.
10. The right to attend classes and university functions until a hearing is held and a decision is rendered against the accused by the appropriate adjudicatory body. The accused may remain at the institution pending an appeal, if his or her presence does not present a threat to himself/herself, any member of the university community, or the property of the university. This determination is made by the Vice President for Student Affairs and can be appealed to the university President.

Appeal Process Sheet

1. You have 24 (twenty four) hours to appeal fines to your Hall Director.
2. You have 5 (five) business days to appeal your sanctions.

3. In order to appeal fines for Level 3 violations you must send a letter to the Director of Student Life; Mr. Desmond Stowe, stowed@savannahstate.edu 912-358-3117.
4. In order to appeal you must send a letter to the Assistant to the Vice President of Student Affairs: Ms. Bonita Bradley, bradleyb@savannahstate.edu 912 358-3118.
5. If you DO NOT appeal within 5 (five) business days your suspension will stand (as is).

The First Sentence of Your Appeal Letter Should Read:

I (insert name) am appealing the charge(s) of (insert charges) on the grounds that: (review Page 55 of the Student Handbook Guideline for Appeal and choose an appeal justification that fits your case).

-After your first line you may provide an explanation or "your side of the story" as to your Charges.

Ombudsman

The Office of the Ombudsman provides confidential, informal, independent, and neutral dispute resolution services students in the university community. The office assists students in identifying and evaluating options for resolving and managing conflicts, provides mediation services, conducts workshops on conflict management, and makes referrals to other appropriate university and community resources. The staff is familiar with the organizational structure of the university and can provide current information about campus services, programs, policies, and procedures. Due to its informal, confidential, and independent role outside the administrative structure of the university, notice to the Ombudsman Office about a problem does not result in the generation of records, nor does it constitute legal notice to the university about the existence of a problem. For those interested in making official complaints to the university about a problem, the Ombudsman Office can assist by making appropriate referrals.

Procedures:

VIII. Admissions to Buildings

- A. The Office of Public Safety maintains daily logs, which contain the name(s) of anyone admitted to any building after it has been secured at the end of the normal working day or when the campus is closed. For this reason, and because the Office of Public Safety may not know all employees personally, they are required to determine proper identification before granting access. Therefore, it is required that all persons carry proper identification when requesting access to any campus facility after hours.
- B. After regular working hours or when the campus is closed, the Office of Public Safety may deny access to anyone that is unable to produce proper identification or to anyone they believe has no legitimate business on campus.
- C. Undergraduate students will not be admitted to buildings, rooms or laboratories during and after regular working hours or when the campus is closed unless accompanied by an employee of the University. The employee is responsible for the student's conduct while in the building, rooms or laboratory. Pre-authorized graduate students will be granted access to academic spaces for research purposes.

IX. After Hours Use of Classrooms, Labs, and other Academic Areas

- A. Use of classrooms, labs, and other academic areas is limited to normal operating hours unless prior approval has been received from the faculty member who controls the space, chair or dean. Approval must be provided to and acknowledged by the Office of Public Safety before using an area. Faculty, staff, students, and visitors found using academic areas after hours without prior approval of the designated building coordinator for building (contact the Office of Public Safety to find out who the designated building coordinator is), will be asked to leave the building. Notice of approval may consist of an email, or other written notification. Authorization is not complete until acknowledged by Campus Police.

This section does not apply to faculty, staff or graduate students prepping labs or classrooms, or doing other individual work after hours. Faculty, graduate students or staff working after hours must notify Office of Public Safety of their presence in the building if staying after normal hours, and again when they leave the building.

- B. Undergraduate students and visitors must be accompanied by a faculty or staff member at all times when using academic areas after normal operating hours. Student lab monitors must be approved in advance by the faculty member who controls the space, chair or dean and be registered with the Office of Public Safety.
- C. During regular working hours students will not be permitted access to laboratories or other rooms that contain equipment where safety and security is of concern, unless the proper instructor or staff is present.
- D. All academic areas must be secured when unoccupied. When working after normal hours, notify Office of Public Safety when you are done and leaving the building.

X. After Hours Access to Offices

Faculty and Staff may access their offices after normal operating hours. Contact the Office of Public Safety in advance to gain access to your assigned building and office ONLY. Notify Office of Public Safety and remain at the building until a Public Safety Officer arrives to secure the building before you leave. This will help assure your safety and provide information needed to properly secure the building.

XI. Student and Visitor Admissions to Campus After Visitation Hours

- E. Non-residential students, visitors and unauthorized guests will not be granted access to the campus after official visitation hour's end. Authorized guests must present a copy of their overnight guest authorization form to gain access and must be accompanied by the sponsoring student.

Co-ed Visitation Periods and Hours for Bostic, Bowen-Smith, Camilla Hubert, Tiger Pointe, Tiger Place and Tiger Court and the FLLC:

Sunday through Thursday starting at 12:00pm to 11:00pm (all visitors must be signed out before 11:00pm)

Fridays and Saturdays starting at 12:00pm to 12:00am (all visitors must be signed out before 12:00am).

Co-ed Visitation Periods and Hours for University Village and University Commons:

Sunday - Thursday 12:00pm – 11:30pm

Friday and Saturday 12:00pm - 12:00am

- F. Anyone requested by the Office of Public Safety to show an identification card, but who cannot produce one, and believes they have a legitimate reason for being on SSU property, will be asked by the Office of Public Safety to explain these reasons. If the Office of Public Safety determines any such explanations are insufficient, they reserve the right to request the person leave the premises; or upon refusal, physically remove the individual.

- G. Residence hall entrances are secured 24 hours a day. Over extended breaks, the doors of all halls will be secured around the clock.
- H. Students will not be admitted to buildings, rooms or laboratories after regular working hours or when the campus is closed unless accompanied by an employee of the University. The employee is responsible for the student's conduct while on campus.

Emergency Information

Fire Safety

Fire Drills:

Savannah State University will conduct several unannounced fire drills each semester. It is mandatory that students evacuate during these drills. Students found in the residence halls, University Village or University Commons during drills or actual emergencies will be subject to disciplinary action.

Fire Extinguisher Safety:

The primary use of a fire extinguisher is to provide fire containment so you can access an exit. It is designed to get you out of a fire, not to fight a fire.

Upon discovering a fire:

1. Don't panic, remain calm. Call Public Safety at 358-3010 and notify a staff member of the location and type of fire. Do not dial 911 because the call will be routed back to Savannah State University's Public Safety Department.
2. Pull the fire alarm immediately to alert residents.
3. If possible, shut all doors and windows in the immediate vicinity of the fire.
4. Use a fire extinguisher on only the smallest, most confinable fire.
5. Notify other persons on your way out. If there is smoke, get on your hands and knees and crawl to the nearest door.

Upon hearing a fire alarm:

1. Before opening the door, feel to see if the door and handle are cool. If so, leave the room and exit the building.
1. When exiting the room, go to the nearest exit or stairway.
3. After exiting, stand clear of the building. Report to your RA/CA.
4. If exiting the room or apartment unit is not possible, close the door securely, place a wet towel at the base of the door and hang an object out the window to attract attention. Cover your body with something that can be easily seen and take a wet towel and place it over your head. If possible, call the front desk or Public Safety at 358-3010 and let them know where you are. Make yourself visible to rescuers through any window or balcony. DO NOT JUMP!!

For your safety, all buildings have:

1. Smoke detectors in every room.
2. Fire extinguishers on every floor.
3. Emergency lighting and exit lights.

NOTE: Smoking is not allowed within any facility at Savannah State University.

Safety Tips:

1. NEVER smoke in bed or within a residential facility.
2. Locate fire exits and check for possible obstructions.
3. Locate fire alarms and fire extinguishers.
3. Keep your room or apartment key(s) on a table next to your bed.
5. If you leave your room or apartment, close the door and take the key(s).
6. Public Safety's phone number is 358-3010.

Hurricane Evacuation

A hurricane is a severe tropical storm that is characterized by tidal surge, gale force winds and torrential rains. Flooding and wind damage may extend hundreds of miles inland beyond the coastline. Savannah State University may evacuate in the event of a hurricane. If an evacuation occurs, mandatory or voluntary, students should take the following steps.

1. Your RD/RA, University Village or University Commons staff is your first line of contact. Stay in constant contact with them.
2. Let RD/RA, University Village or University Commons staff know if you will be evacuating with college officials or if you will be evacuating on your own.
3. If you will be evacuating on your own, let your RD/RA, University Village or University Commons staff know the address and telephone number to where you are evacuating.
4. If evacuating with the University, pack enough toiletries, clothing, medication and other necessities for three days. Also, bring a pillow.
5. If possible, contact your parents or guardians to let them know of your plans.
6. When evacuating with the college, you will be provided food and shelter during your time away.

"Building Relationships for Success: From Home to SSU Housing"

- Never return to the campus until you get the "All Clear" message. Listen to local TV and radio stations for this information.

Tornado Safety*

TORNADO WATCH

A tornado watch is issued when conditions are favorable for a tornado to occur.

- Remain alert for approaching storms.
- This is time to remind family members where the safest places within your home are located, and listen to the radio or television for further developments.
- Be prepared to seek shelter.

TORNADO WARNING

A tornado warning is issued when a tornado has been sighted in the area.

- Immediately seek safe shelter.

PRIOR TO THE THREAT

Before you are faced with the threat of a tornado, plan now and be prepared.

- Conduct tornado drills each tornado season.
- Designate an area in the home as a shelter.
- Conduct tornado drills with your family.
- Know the difference between a "watch" and a "warning."
- Have Emergency Supplies on hand.
 - Flashlight and extra batteries
 - Portable, battery-operated radio and extra batteries
 - First aid kit and manual
 - Emergency food and water
 - Non-electric can opener
 - Essential medicines
 - Cash and credit cards
 - Sturdy shoes

IF YOU SEE A TORNADO

A tornado is one of nature's most awe inspiring events. Be familiar with this information if in the event you spot a tornado.

- Take cover immediately.
- Stay away from windows, doors, outside walls and open spaces.
- Protect your head from falling objects or flying debris.
- In public buildings, go to the pre-designated shelter areas.
- In a vehicle, trailer, or mobile home, get out immediately and go to a more substantial structure.
- Never get underneath a mobile home/trailer.

✗Seek shelter on foot if possible.

✗If there is no shelter nearby lie flat in the nearest ditch with your hands shielding your head.

DURING A TORNADO

If you are in an area when a tornado strikes the following information is provided to help in protecting your family.

If in a Building

✗Go to the basement, storm cellar, or the lowest level of the building.

✗If no basement, go to an inner hallway or a smaller inner room without windows.

✗Get away from the windows.

✗Get under a piece of sturdy furniture.

✗Use arms to protect head and neck.

✗If in a mobile home, get out and find shelter elsewhere.

If Outside

✗If possible, get inside a building.

✗If shelter is not available, lie in a ditch or crouch near a strong building.

✗Be aware of the potential for flooding.

✗Use arms to protect head and neck.

If in a Car

✗Never try to out drive a tornado. Get out of the car and take shelter in a nearby building.

✗If shelter is not available, lie in a ditch or crouch near a strong building.

✗Be aware of the potential for flooding.

✗Use arms to protect head and neck.

THE AFTERMATH

After a tornado strikes an area, there will be much debris. Caution must be exercised to ensure your safety.

✗Help injured or trapped persons.

✗Give first aid when appropriate.

✗Don't try to move the seriously injured. Call for help.

✗Turn on radio or television to get the latest emergency information.

✗Stay out of damaged buildings.

✗Return home only when authorities say it is safe.

✗Use the telephone only for emergency calls.

✗Unsanitary up spilled medicines, bleaches, or gasoline or other flammable liquids immediately.

✗Leave the buildings if you smell gas or chemical fumes.

✗Take pictures of the damage--both to the house and its contents--for insurance purposes.

✗Remember to help neighbors who may require special assistance (i.e. infants, elderly).

* <http://cema.chathamcounty.org/tornado.htm>

Bomb Threats

1. DO NOT hang up the phone.
2. Pull the fire alarm to evacuate the building.
3. Find appropriate staff and tell them what has happened. They will contact campus security.
4. Stay clear of the building.

Public Safety Department

The Savannah State University Department of Public Safety consists of trained and certified officers. Officers are on duty 24 hours every day. Some of the services offered by this department are: after-hours emergency notification; applicant criminal record checks; crime prevention programs; emergency medical services; event security; facility access; fingerprinting; fire emergencies; fire safety inspections; and the Motorist Assistance Program. The Public Safety Department can be contacted at 358-3010 if there is an emergency.

Personal Safety

Safety within the residential facilities involves the responsible actions of each resident. The residential facilities are equipped with door locks and uniformed public safety officers who patrol to ensure everyone's safety. You are responsible for:

1. keeping your room door locked;
2. never propping open an entry door;
3. inviting only guests that you know personally into the building;
4. escorting your guests at all times;
5. never lending or duplicating your room key;
6. reporting missing key(s) immediately; and
7. reporting suspicious persons or unescorted individuals immediately to your RA, RD, RD, CA or Public Safety.

Personal Property Protection Tips

While residing in a University residence hall, University Village or University Commons, take these simple precautionary measures to protect your personal property:

1. Register all of your valuables with Public Safety. This list will allow you to provide a description, serial number, and an estimated value of the items that are valuable and important to you.
2. Place an identifying mark (an engraver is available through our Public Safety Office) on your property.
3. Purchase a Student Personal Property Insurance Plan. This policy covers your personal

- property within your room. STRONGLY RECOMMENDED!
4. Report strangers and suspicious behavior to your Resident Assistant, Residential Director, University Village/University Commons staff or Public Safety immediately.
 5. Be sure to keep your room or apartment door locked at all times, even during trips to the restroom, computer room or laundry room.
 6. Get to know your neighbors and the people that visit with them.
 7. Never invite strangers into your room or apartment.
 8. Never keep large sums of cash in your room or apartment, though the best practice is to always keep your money in the bank.
 9. Keep your jewelry out of sight!
 10. Develop a neighborhood watch-like program on your floor, apartment unit or unit building.

Emergency Drills

Residents must comply with all fire and safety regulations and guidelines, and must participate in all emergency drills. Residents must pay special attention to information given regarding emergency exiting from buildings and are expected to know their locations and the procedure for their use.

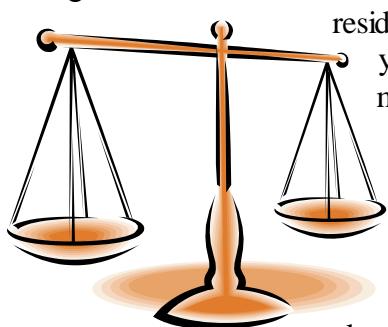

Panic/Security Doors

Traditional/Suite Style Residence Hall ONLY: The residence halls are equipped with panic/security doors, which are designed to be used only in the event of an emergency. The main exit should be used for regular exits and entrances to the building. Those who violate this regulation by placing a wedge in the door admitting others to the building will be subject to disciplinary action by the University.

Your Rights, Freedoms and Responsibilities

At this point you have been introduced to the overall goals of the Office of Residential Services & Programs and Student Affairs, the staffing arrangements within the Savannah State University's residential facilities and the services available to you. Now it is time that you become aware of the rights and freedoms granted to you as a member of the University and its on-campus residential community.

Although some of the following information has been discussed earlier, for the sake of emphasis and clarification of your rights, freedoms and responsibilities, it will be reiterated.

As an institution of higher education, SSU is committed to sharing knowledge, searching for truth, and developing you as one of its students, so that at some future date society will prosper as a result of your contribution. To best ensure the fulfillment of these aspirations, you have been granted the freedom to ask questions and express yourself in ways that will lead to the pursuit of the University's goals.

Just as the University has the freedom to teach, you have the freedom to learn. Your freedom to learn, whether it is in the residence hall or in the classroom, is dependent upon the conditions that prevail. As a student, you can protect your freedom to learn through the choice of responsible actions. You have the right to be heard when it comes to safeguarding your freedom to learn. For example, as a residence hall community member, you are encouraged to assume responsibility in helping to foster and maintain a positive floor environment.

Although students bring to campus a wide variety of interests, they can develop many new and different interests that are on campus. You, as a student, have the ability and the opportunity to organize and join associations that will promote your interests. Your association with other students who have interests common to yours can provide valuable educational opportunities.

Savannah State University, the Division of Student Affairs and the Office of Residential Services & Programs are well aware of, and will continue to be sensitive to, your rights and freedoms. In an attempt to ensure that your rights are protected, the University has clearly outlined a set of basic principles or guidelines for student conduct and behavior. These guidelines were derived from laws or statutes of our society. Quite simply, YOU ARE EXPECTED TO ABIDE BY THESE GENERAL REGULATIONS. The Savannah State University general regulations that have been discussed within this handbook are intended to reflect the general student code of conduct within the residential living facilities as well as within the University community.

Faculty, administration and staff share with you the responsibility of developing and enforcing fair and reasonable code of conduct and behavior. All members of the University community have the right to use the established channels to protect the educational purpose of the institution. As a student, if you are accused of violating the general regulations, you are guaranteed procedural due process. This means that you will be informed of all charges brought against you and you will be given a fair opportunity to refute the charges. Students will also be provided the means for appealing administrative decisions that they choose to contest.

Your freedoms of inquiry, expression, association, participation in hall government, and your right to procedural due process, as mentioned above, are not the only rights and freedoms granted to you as a Savannah State University. Take the time to search them out and always remember with freedom comes responsibility.
